Mr. Recorder. If you do not plead, the Court must pass Judgment upon you. You can have no Benefit in what you fay, till you have pleaded. If you were indicted for Felony, and you will not plead, the Law takes it in nature of a Confession, and Judgment must pals, as if you were proved guilty.

Mr. Coniers. If there be any reason to put off his Tryal, it must be made appear after Islue is joined.

Mr. Recorder. If you fay, Guilty, there is an end of it; but if you fay, Not Guilty, the Court can examine into the Fact.

Cl. of Arr. Wills Kidd, art thou Guilty, or not Guilty? Will Kidd. Not Guilty. Cl. of Arr. How wilt thou be tried? Will: Kidd: By God and my Country.

Cl. of Arr. God fend thee a good Deliverance. (And fo of all the rest.)

Will. Kidd. My Lord, I beg I may have my Tryal put off for Three or Four Days, till I have got my Papers.

Mr. Recorder. The Judges will be here by and by, and you may move the Court then; we are only to prepare for your Tryal: We do not deny your Motion; but when the Court is full, they will confider of the Reafons you have to offer.

Will. Kidd. My Lord, I defire Councel may be affign'd me.

Mr. Recorder. Capt Kidd, I told you it would be your time, when the Jury was call'd, to offer what you had to offer; therefore, if you have any thing now to fay to the Court, you had best lay it.

Will. Kidd. Ibeg I may have Councel, Dr. Oldifh, and Mr. Lemmon, that they may be heard on my behalf.

Mr. J. Powel. If he defires it, you may be Councel for him, provided there be any matter of Law that he has to plead; otherwise he must be tried.

Dr. Oldifb. My Lord, he moves that his Tryal for Piracy may be put off for feveral Reafons; one is, there is one Davis, that is a neceffary Witnels for him; he was taken a Paf-fenger into the Ship, and therefore could not be concerned in any Piracy: Now this Davis ftands indicted, fo that he is deprived of this Perfon, who is a neceffary Witnels for him in this Cafe.

Mr. Coniers. He is not indicted yet, he may call him if he thinks fit.

Mr. J. Powel. If he be indicted, yet he may be a Witnefs.

Dr. Oldifh. My Lord, we defire he may be here. Mr. J. Powel. Where is he?

Cl. of Arr. He is in Newgate. Mr. J. Powel. Let him be fent for. Dr. Oldifh. My Lord, it is very fit his Tryal should be delay'd for some Time, because he wants some Papers very necessary for his Defence. It's very true, he is charged with Piracies in feveral Ships; but they had French Paffes when the Seifure was made. Now if there were French Passes it was a lawful Seisure.

Mr. J. Powel. Have you those Passes?

Will. Kidd. They were taken from me by my Lord Bellamont, and these Passes would be my Defence.

Dr. Oxenden. Had you any other Passes when you took the Armenian Ship?

Dr. Oldifh. If those Ships that he took had French Passes, there was just cause of Seisure, and it will excuse him from Piracy

Will. Kidd. The Passes were feifed by my Lord Bellamont, that we will prove as clear as the Day.

Mr. Lemmon. My Lord, I defire one word as to this Circumstance, he was doing his King and Country Service, inftead of being a Pirate: For in this very Ship there was a French País, and it was shown to Mr. Davis, and carried to my Lord Bellamont, and he made a Seisure of it. And there was a Letter writ to teffifie it, which was produced before the Parliament; and that Letter has been transmitted from Hand to Hand; fo that we cannot at present come by it. There are several other Papers and Letters that we cannot get; and therefore we defire the Tryal may be put off till we can procure them.

L. C. B. Ward. Where are they ?

Mr. Lemmon We cannot yet tell whether they are in the Admiralty Office, or whether Mr. Jodrell hath them.

Mr. J. Powel. Let us see on what you go. You talk of French Passes, you should have been prepared to make Affidavit of it. What Ship was that which had the French Paffes? Mr. Lemmon. The fame we were in, the fame that he is indicted for. Mr. J. Powel. Make out this, Mr. Lemmon.

Mr. Lemmon. My Lord, we defire Mr. Davis may be fent for, he will prove it. L, C. B. Ward, Send for Edward Davis.

Mr. Fell. My Lord, will you have him brought into Court ?

L. C. B. Ward. Yes.

Mr. Soll. Gen. They have had a Fortnights Notice to prepare for the Tryal.

Dr. Oldish, We petitioned for Money, and the Court ordered Fifty Pounds; but the Perfon that received it went away, and we had none till last Night. Dr. Oxenden. I ordered that the Money might be paid into his own hands, that he might be fure to have it.

Mr. Crawley, Register, Declar'd, That he paid the 50 l. into his own Hands on Tuesday Morning.

L. C. B. Ward. You ought to make it out, that there is a reasonable Caule to put off the Tryal, or elfe it cannot be allowed.

Mr. Lemmon. My Lord, we will be ready to morrow morning.

L. C. B. Ward. They ought to have had due Notice, What Notice have they had? Mr. Sol. Gen. A Fortnights Notice, this Day Fortnight.

Dr. Oldifh. My Lord, he should have had his Money delivered to him.

Will. Kidd. 1 had no Money nor Friends to prepare for my Tryal till laft Night.] L. C. B. Ward. Why did you not fignifie fo much to the King's Officers.

Mr. Sol. Gen. My Lord, this we will do, let Davis be brought into Court; and if that be a just Excuse, we are contented. In the mean time, let him be tried for the Murther, wherein there is no pretence of want of Witneffes or Papers.

Officer. Davis is here, My Lord.

CL of Arr. Set all aside but Captain Kidd. William Kidd, You are now to be tried on the Bill of Murther, the Jury is going to be fworn; if you have any Caule of Exception, you may speak to them as they come to the Book.

After Proclamation made, (as usual) the Court proceeded to the Tryal, as follows :

Cl. of Arr. Will. Kidd, hold up thy Hand. (which be did) You Gentlemen of the Jury, look upon the Prifoner, and hearken to his Caufe. He ftands indicted by the Name of William Kidd, &c. as before in the Indictment. Upon this Indictment he has been arraigned, and thereunto has pleaded, Not Guilty, and for his Tryal has put himfelf on God and his Coun-try, which Country you are. Your Charge is to enquire, Whether he beG uilty of the Murther whereof he is Indicted, in manner and form as he ftands indicted, or Not guilty, &c.

Mr. Knap. My Lord and you Gentlemen of the Jury, This is an Indictment of Murther. The Indictment lets forth, That William Kidd, on the zoth. of October, on the High Sea, on the Coaft of Malabar, did affault one William Moore, on 30th. of October, on the High Sea, on the Coalt of Waladar, and aljant one william Moore, on Board a Ship called the Adventure, whereof William Kidd was Captain, fruck him with a Wooden Bucket, hooped with Iron, on the fide of the Head, near the right Ear, and that of this Bruife he di-ed the next Day, and fo that he has murdered the faid Perfen. To this Indictment he has plead-ed Not Guilty; if we prove him Guilty, you must find him fo. Mr. Soll. Gen. My Lord, and Gentlemen of the Jury, We will prove this as particularly as can be, that William Kidd was Captain of the Ship, and that William Moore was under him in the Ship, and that without any Provocation he gave him this Blow, whereof he died.

Mr Coniers My Lord, It will appear to be a most barbarous Fact, to murther a Man in this manner; for the Man gave him no manner of Provocation. This William Moore was a Gunner in the Ship, and this William Kidd abules him, and calls him Loufie Dog; and upon a civil Anfwer he takes this Bucket, and knocks him on the Head, whereof he died the next Day. Call Joseph Palmer, and Robers Bradinham. (who appeared, and were Sworn.) Joseph Palmer, give my Lord and the Jury an Account of what you faw done by William Kidd, on the Goaff of Malabar, as to William Moore his Gunner.

Jef. Palmer. About a Fortnight before this Accident fell out, Captain Kidd met with a Ship on that Coaft, that was called the Loyal Captain. And about a Fortnight after this, the Gun-ner was grinding a Chiffel aboard the Adventure, on the High Sea, near the Coaft of Malabar, in the East-Indies.

What was the Gunner's Name? Mr. Coniers.

Fof. Palmer. Will. Moore. And Captain Kidd came and walked on the Deck, and walks by fof. Palmer. Will. Moore. And Captain Kidd came and walked on the Deck, and walks by this Moore; and when he came to him, fays, Which way could you have put me in a way to take this Ship, and been clear; Sir, fays William Moore, Inever [poke fuch a Word, nor ever thought fuch a thing. Upon which Captain Kidd called him a Lousse Dog. And fays William Moore, If 1 am a Lousse Dog, you have made me fo; you have bringht me to Rain, and many more. Upon this faying this, fays Captain Kid, Have I ruined you, you Dog? and took a Bucket bound with Iron Hoops, and flruck him on the right fide of the Head, of which he died the next Day. Mr. Cooper. What was the Gunner doing at that time, when he gave him that Blow? Fol. Plalmer. He was grinding a Chiffel at the time that he ftruck him.

Jos. Pfalmer. He was grinding a Chiffel at the time that he struck him.

Mr. Cooper. Did he give him the Blow immediately after he gave him that Answer? Fof. Palmer. He walked Two or Three Times backward and forward upon the Deck, before he struck the Blow.

Mr. J. Turton. What did Captain Kidd fay first?

Jos. Palmer. Which way could you have put me in a way of taking this Ship, and been clear? Says the Gunner, I never said so, nor chought any such thing. Mr. Cooper. Hark you, Friend, explain that matter.

Mr. B. Hatfel. What was the Occasion of those Words ?

Fof. Palmer. It was concerning this Ship.

L. C. B. Ward. What Ship was it ? Name the Ship. Jof. Palmer. It was the Loyal Captain. Captain Kidd faid to William Moore, Which way could you have put me in the way to have taken this Ship, and been clear? Says William Moore, Ine-ver said such a thing, nor thought it. And upon that he call dhim Lougie Dog.

L. C. B. Ward. Was that Ship taken? Jof. Palmer. No, the was gone. Mr. Coniers. You fay he call'd him Loufie Dog. Jof. Palmer. Yes.

Mr. Coniers. What did William More fay to him then?

· WC :

Josi Palmer. He faid, If I am a Lousse Dog, you have brought me to it; you have rained me and many more. Upon this, Jays Coptain Kid, Have I brought you to Ruin, you Dog? Repeating it two or three times over, and took a turn or two upon the Deck, and then takes up the Bucket, and strikes him on the Head.

Mr. Cooper. You fay he made a turn or two on the Deck, and then ftruck him.

Jos. Palmer. Yes. Mr. Conjers. Tell my Lord what pass next after the Blow. Jos. Palmer. He was let down the Gun-Room, and the Gunner said, Farewel, farewel, Captain Kidd has given me my laft. And Captain Kidd flood on the Deck, and faid, You are a Villain.

Mr. Cooper. How near was Captain Kidd to him when he faid he had given him his laft ? Jof. Palmer. He was near him.

Mr. Cooper. Was he within hearing of what Moore faid? Jof. Palmer. Yes, he was within leven or eight Foot. Mr. Soll. Gen. Did you apprehend that he died of that Blow?

Jos. Palmer. He was in perfect Health before that.

Mr. Soll: Gen. What did the Surgeon think of it ?

Jul. Palmer. The Surgeon is here.

Mr. Soll. Gen. Did you see him afterwards ?

Jof. Palmer. No, I did not fee him after till he was dead. Mr. Cooper. How did the Wound appear when you faw him? Jof. Palmer. After he was dead, the Surgeon was called to open his Head, and Captain Kidd faid, You are damn'd busie without Order.

Mr. Cooper. Though we ask you Questions, you must turn your Face there towards the Give the Jury an Account of what you faw. Jury.

Jof. Palmer. I felt on his Head, and I felt fomething give way, and about the Wound there was a Bruife.

Mr. Cooper. You fay you faw him when he was carried off after the Blow, how did his Head appear then? washe Bloody

J. Palmer. There was not much Blood came from him.

L.C. B. Ward. Was you by when those words were spoken?

Jof. Palmer. Yes, my Lord.

L. C. B. Ward. Did you fee the Prisoner give the Blow with the Bucket upon those words? Jul. Palmer. Yes, my Lord.

L. C. B. Ward. How long was it before he went down the Deck?

305. Palmer. Prefently. L. C. B. Ward. Did he complain of the Wound? 35. Palmer. He faid, Farewel, farewel, Captain Kidd has given me my last. L. C. B. Ward. Was this Moore in a good Condition of Health before this Blow was given him

Jof. Palmer. Yes, my Lord. L. C. B. Ward. And afterwards he complained. Jof. Palmer. Yes, my Lord. L. C. B. Ward. When he was dead, what Marks were on his Head ?

Jof. Palmer. On the right fide of his Head, on this Place (pointing to his own Head) it was bruifed a confiderable Breadth; and in one Place I could feel the Skull give way.

Mr. Cooper. How long after the Blow did he die? Jof. Palmer. The next- Day following. Mr. Cooper. And you fay you faw him dead then, Jof. Palmer. Yes, Sir. L. C. B. Ward. Captain Kidd, if you will ask him any Queffions, you may. Will. Kidd. My Lord, I would ask this Man what this Moore was doing when this thing happen'd.

L. C. B. Ward, Mr. Palmer, you hear what he fays ; what was Moore doing ?

J. C. B. Ward Fill admit, you heat what he lays, what was J.f. Palmer. He was grinding a Chiffel. Will. Kidd. What was the Occasion that I ftruck him? Jof. Palmer. The Wordsthat I told you before. Will. Kidd. Was there no other Ship? Jof. Palmer. Yes. Will. Kidd. What was that Ship? Jof. Palmer. A Dutch Ship.

Will: Kidd. What were you doing with the Ship ?

Jof. Palmer. She was becalmed. Will. Kidd. This Ship was a League from us, and fome of the Men would have taken her, and I would not confent to it, and this Moore faid I always hindred them making their Fortunes ; was not that the Reason I struck him ? was there not a Mutiny on Board.

Jof. Palmer. No. You chaced this Dutchman, and in the way took a Malabar Boat, and chaced this Ship all the whole Night; and they showed their Colours, and you put up your Colours.

Will. Kidd. This is nothing to the Point, was there no Mutiny aboard?

Jos. Palmer. The re was no Mutiny, all was quiet.

Will. Kidd. Was there not a Mutiny, because they would go and take that Dutchman? Jos Palmer. No, none at all. Mr. Coniers. Call Robert Bradinham.

Jos. Palmer. A Fortnight before this was done, we met with this Loyal Captain, of which Captain Hoar was Commander, and he came on Board Captain Kidd's Ship, and Cap-tain Kidd went on Board his, and then Captain Kidd let this Ship go. About a Fortnight after this, the Gunner was grinding his Chiffel on the Deck ; and Captain Kidd faid to him, Which way could you have put me in a way to take this Ship, and been clear ? To which he reply'd, I never faid fuch a Thing, nor thought of fuch a Thing. Whereupon Captain Kidd called the Gunner Loufie Dog. And fays Moore, If I am a Loufie Dog, you bave made me so; you have brought me to Ruin, and a great many more. And fays Captain Kidd, Have I brought you to Ruin, you Dog? and after fruck him with the Bucket. These were all the Words that paft.

Mr. 7 Powel. Was Captain Kidd aboard that Ship?

Jos. Palmer. Yes, and Captain 'Hoar was aboard him? Mr. J. Powel. Was there any body nigh at that time? Jos. Palmer. And I was by the Gun-Room, and Captain Kidd was walking there, and I heard Moore fay, Farewel; Farewel, Captain Kidd bas given me my last Blow; and Captain Kidd, when he heard it, faid, Damn bim, he is a Villain,

Mr. Coniers. Did you hear him fay fo? R. Bradinham. I did hear it.

Mr. Cooper. Had you any Difcourle with Captain Kidd after this, about this Man's Death? R. Bradinham. Some time after this, about Two Months, by the Coaft of Malabar, Captain Kidd said, I do not care fo much for the Death of my Gummer, as for other Passages of my Voyage; for I have good Friends in England, that will bring me off for that. L. C. B. Ward. Mr. Kidd, Will you ask him any Queffions?

Mr, Coniers. Then we have done for the King

L. C. B. Ward. Then you may make your Defence, you are charged with Murther, and you have heard the Evidence that has been given, What have you to fay for your felf?

Will. Kidd. I have Evidence to prove it is no fuch thing, if they may be admitted to come hither. My Lord, I will tell you what the Cafe was, I was coming up within a League of the Dutchman, and fome of my Men were making a Mutiny about taking her; and my Gunner told the People he could put the Captain in away to take the Ship, and be fafe. Says I, How will you do that? The Gunner anfwered, We will get the Captain and Men aboard. And what then? We will go aboard the Ship, and plunder her, and we will have it under their Hands that we did not take her. Says I, This is Judas like, I dare not do Such a thing. Says he, We may do it, we are Beggars already. Why fays I, May we take this Ship because we are Poor? Upon that a Mutiny arofe, fo I took up a Bucket, and just throwed it at him, and faid, You are a Rogue to make such a Motion. This I can prove, my Lord.

L. C. B. Ward. Call your Evidence.

Mr. Cooper. Mr. Palmer, Was there any Mutiny in the Ship, when this Man was killed? Jof. Palmer. There was none.

L. C. B. Ward. Captain Kidd; Call what Evidence you will.

Will. Kidd. They are Prifoners Idefire they may be called up.

Mr. Bar. Hatfell. Mr. Palmer, Did he throw the Bucket at him, or firike him with'it? Jof. Palmer.' He held it by the Strap in his Hand.

IU

Will Kidd, Call Abel Owens. (who appeared) Can you tell which way this Bucket was thrown ?

Mr. 7. Powel. What was the Provocation for throwing this Bucket?

Abel Owens. I was in the Cook room, and hearing some Difference on the Deck, I came out; and the Gunner was grinding a Chiffel on the Grindstone, and the Captain and he had some Words; and the Gunner faid to the Captain, You have brought us to ruin, and we are defolate. And fays he, Have I brought you to ruin? I have not brought you to ruin, I have not done an ill Thing to ruin you, you are a fawcy Fellow to give me these Words; and then he took up the Bucket, and did give him a Blow.

Will. Kidd. Was there not a Mutiny among the Men?

Abel Owens. Yes, and the bigger Part was for taking the Ship; and the Captain faid, Tou that will take the Dutchman, you are the strongest, you may do what you please; if you will take her, you may take her; but if you go from aboard, you shall never come aboard again.

L. C. B. Ward. When was this Mutiny you speak of?

Abel Owens. About a Month.

Mr. J. Powel. At this time when the Blow was given, did Moore the Gunner endeavour to make any Mutiny?

Abel Owens. No

Mr. J. Powel. Was there any Mutiny then ?

Abel Owens. None at all.

Will. Kidd. Did not he fay, He could put me in a way to take the Dutchman, and be clear? Abel Owens. I know there were feveral of them would have done it, but you would not give Confent to it.

Will. Kidd. No, but this was the Reafon I threw the Bucket at him.

L. C. B. Ward. Captain Kidd, he tells you this was a Month before you ftruck him.

Jury. My Lord, we defire he may be asked, whether he did throw the Bucket, or firike him with it.

L. C. B. Ward. Anfwer the Jury to that Queffion.

Abel Queens. He took it with the Strap, and struck him with it. Will. Kidd. Lid not I throw it at him?

Abel Or eps. No, I was near you when you did it.

Did you fee the Stroke given ?

Abe.' Owens. I did fee the Stroke given.

L. C. B. Ward. Captain Kudd, Will you call any more? Will. Rida. Yes, my Lord. Call Richard Barlicorn.

Mr. J. Pour I. W. t Queffions would you have him ask'd?

Will. Kidd. R. Ba. licorn, what was the Reafon that Blow was given to the Gunner? -

R. Barlicorn. At first when you met with the Ship there was a Mutiny, and Two or Three of the Dutchmen came aboard; and some faid the was a rich Vetlel, and they would take her : And the Captain faid, No, I will not take her. And there was a Mutiny in the Ship, and the Men faid If you will not, we will. And he faid, If you have a mind, you may; but they that will not, come along with me.

Will. Kidd. Do you think William Moore was one of those that was for taking her ? Barlicorn. -Yes

L. C. B. Ward. How long was that before Moore died, do you know ?

Barhcorn. No, I did not keep a Journal. L. C. B. Ward. Was it after Moore died ?

Barlicorn. No Sir, it was before Moore died.

Mr. Coniers. How long before?

Barlicorn. I besieve it was about a Month, or Three Weeks, I cannot tell which.

L. C. B. Ward. You fay there was a Mutiny in the Ship, what was the Mutiny about? Barlicorn. About taking the Ship

L. C. B. Ward. What was the Ship's Name ?

Barlicorn. The Loyal Captain. And the Captain faid, If they take the Ship, they fhall never come aboard again. L.C. B. Ward. Was you by when Moore received this Blow?

Barlicorn. No, I was not by then.

Will. Kidd. Do you know of any Quarrel between this Moore and I before that Accident? Barlicorn. No, I did not. Mr. J. Powel. Was there any Mutiny in the Ship when this Moore died?

Barlicorn. They were talking of it.

Will. Kidd. Was there not a Dutchman close by us, when this Blow was given? Yes Sir. Barlicorn.

Will. Kidd. He was going to make another Mutiny, and I prevented him.

William Kidd. Do you know the Reafon why I ftruck Moore?

Hugh Parrot. Yes, becaufe you did not take the Loyal Captain, whereof Captain Hoar was Commander

L. C. B. Ward. Was that the Reason he ftruck Moore, because the Ship was not taken?

Hugh Parrot. I shall tell you how it happened, according to the best of my Knowledge, My Commander fortuned to come up with this Captain Hoar's Ship, and fome were for taking her, and fomenot; and afterwards there was a little fort of Mutiny, and fome rofe in Arms, the greateft Part, and they faid they would take this Ship, and the Commander was not for it; and fo they refolv'd to go away in the Boat, and take her. Captain Kidd faid, If you defert my Ship, you shall never come aboard again, and I will force you into Bombay, and I will carry you before fome of the Councel there : Infomuch as my Commander stilled them again, and they remained on Board. And about a Fortnight afterwards there passed some Words between this William Moore, and my Commander; and then fays he, Captain, I could have put you in a way to have taken this Ship, and been never the worfe for it. He fays, Would you have me take this Ship? I cannot answer it, they are our Friends, and my Commander was in a Passion ; and with that I went off the Deck, and I understood afterwards the Blow was given, but how I cannot tell.

Mr. J. Powel. Captain Kidd, Have you any more to ask him, or have you any more Witneffes to call?

Will. Kidd. I could call all of them to teftifie the fame thing, but I will not trouble you to call any more.

L. C. B. Ward. Have you any more to fay for your felf?

Will. Kidd. I have no more to fay, but that I had all the Provocation in the World given me; I had no defign to kill him, I had no Malice or Spleen against him.

L. C. B. Ward. That must be left to the Jury to confider the Evidence that has been given; you make out no fuch matter.

Juryman. My Lord, I defire the Prifoner may give an Account whether he did do any thing in Order to his Cure.

L. C. B. Ward. He is to be tried according to Law; the King's Evidence hath been heard, and he has the Liberty to produce what Evidence he can for himfelf; will you put him to produce more Evidence than he can? If he has any more to fay, it will be his Interest to fay what he can, the Court 15 willing to hear him as long as he hath any thing to offer for him; felf, either upon that Account, or any thing elfe.

Will. Kidd. It was not defignedly done, but in my Paffion, for which I am heartily lorry

L. C. B. Ward. Gentlemen of the Jury, the Priloner at the Bar, William Kidd, is indicted for the Murther of William Moore; and whether he be guilty of this Murther, or not Guilty, it is your part to determine on the Evidence that has been given. The Fact charged against him is this, That the Prisoner at the Bar, William Kidd, being the Commander of the Ship, called the Adventure Galley, and the deceafed William Moore, the Gunner in that Ship; That upon the High Sea, near the Coaft of Malabar, in the East-Indues, and within the Jurifde-ction of the Admiralty of England, in October, in the Ninth Year of his Majefty's Reign, 1697, the Prifoner, William Kidd, out of his Malice fore thought, did firike the de-ceafed, William Moore, with a Bucket hooped with Iron, on the right fide of his Head, and that that Blow was the occasion of the Death of the faid William Moore; that this was done on the easth of Offsher, and that his death enfued on the auft of Offsher, being the next on the 30th. of October, and that his death enfued on the 31st. of October, being the next Day. This is the Fact charged upon him. Now you have heard the Evidence that has been given on the King's Part, and you will weigh it well. You hear the first Witness that has been produced on behalf of the King, is Joseph Palmer. He tells you he was present on board this Ship, at the time when this Blow was given. And he fays there had been some Discourse between the Prisoner, William Kidd, and the deceased Moore, concerning taking a Ship that was called the Loyal Captain, and that Captain Kidd faid to him, How could you have put me in a way to take that Ship, and be clear? No, fays Moore, 1 faid no fuch thing. The Reply Cap-tain Kidd made to him was, He was a Loufse Dog. The Answer of the deceased was this, If I am a fo, you have made me fo, you have ruined me and a great many others. With that fays Captain Kidd, Have I ruined you, you Dog? and up he took a Bucket, hoop'd with Iron, and gave him a Blow on the right fide of his Head. And thereupon he complained, and faid, Tou have given me my last Blow. And then Moore went down below Deck and he faw him You have given me my last Blow. And then Moore went down below Deck, and he faw him no more till the next Day, and then he was dead ; and he felt upon his Head, and perceived a Bruile in one part of it, as broad as a Shilling, and he felt the Skull was broke; and he does take on him to fay, that he believes that Blow was the Occasion of his Death. Being asked whether he knew in what State of Health he was before, he fays, He was in a healthy Condition; he was grinding a Chiffel at that time when the Blow was given; and that Discuss the Occasion of his Death Blow he believes was the Occasion of his Death. And being asked whether he heard any o-ther Words, or faw or knew any thing that could be any cause of Provocation, he fays, He knew no more than the Reply of the Party deceased, If I am a Lousse Dog, you have made me so, and you have been my Ruine : And then, having taken two or three Turns upon the Deck, he gave him the Blow; and then Moore went down the Deck, and used these Words, You have given me my last Blow, or to that Effect.

Gentlemen, You have heard the Surgeon alfo, Robert Bradinham, and he tells you he did not fee the Blow given, but he was fent for after, and the Deceased said, Capt. Kidd had given him his last Blow : And thereupon he did examine him, as a Surgeon, and does believe that Blow on the Head was the occasion of his death, and he did observe it as well as he could.

Jury-man. My Lord, I think Bradinham, faid he was not then by, when the Prisoner gave the Blow.

L. C. B. Ward. I did not fay he was : He fays he was fent for after the Blow ; and when he came, the Deceased faid he gave it him, and what would be the Confequence.

Now these two being Cross-Examin'd by the Prisoner William Kidd, whether they did not know of fome Mutiny in the Ship, that might be the occasion of his giving this Blow; they have told both their Stories, of what Discourse there was of taking this Ship the Loyal Gaptain, and of what Defign there was upon the Dutch Ship after. Now the first of these was a Fortnight before this happen'd, and the other a Week; fo that there was then no Occasion of Mutiny, nor do they know of any Mutiny at that time,

Now, Gentlemen, he has produc'd for himself Three Witnesses. The first that he calls is Abel Owens ; and this Witness has not in his Testimony made for the Prisoner, but in effect confirmed what the other Witnefles for the King faid : for he tells you he was by when the Blow was given, and gives you an Account how this thing was, That there was fome Difcourfe between them, much what to the effect aforefaid, both as to what Capt. Kidd faid to Moore, and what Moore replied; and that Capt. Kidd fhould fay to Moore, You are a fawcy Fellow, or to that purpole; and Moore faid, You have Ruin'd me, and a great many others; and with that the Prifoner took up the Bucket, and ftruck him with it. And he being asked, if there was any Provocation or Occasion why this Blow was given, and whether there was any Mutiny at that time, as pretended, he fays he knew of none, only he fpeaks of one about a Month before.

They have call'd two other Witneffes, one is Richard Barlicorn : He is the Prifoner's Servant; and though he be his Servant, yet the Law allows him to be a Witnefs for him, and the Credit of his Testimony is left to you. Now what has he faid? He has told you something different He thinks there was a Mutiny in the Ship. And being asked about what time ; he stories. thinks it was about a Month or Three Weeks before ; and, upon further Examination faith, there was no Mutiny when Moore was kill'd. He is willing to fay what he can for his Mafter, and believes Mr. Kidd did not defign to do any harm to that Man; for he heard the Surgeon fay, that Blow was not the occasion of his Death. Now, in contradiction to that, Bradinham the Surgeon fays he never did fay fo, but believes that this Blow was the Occafion of his death. You have heard what Objections the Young Man's Teftimony is liable to, and you will confider his whole Evidence.

The last Witness the Prisoner has call'd is Hugh Parrot. He fays there was something of these words, and that the Deceased did say, He could have put the Captain in a way to have taken the Ship, and hereupon Words arofe, and the Captain was in a Paffion ; and that then he went away, and underftood afterwards the Blow was given, but how he could not tell. Now, Gentlemen, this being the Matter of Fact, the Prifoner is Indicted upon it for Mur-ther. Now to make the Killing of a Man to be Murther, there must be Malice prepenfed, either express or implied : The Law implies Malice, when one man, without any reasonable Cause or Provocation, kills another. You have had this Fact opened to you. What Mutiny or Discourse might be a Fortnight or Month before, will not be any reason or cause for fo long continuance of a Passion. But what did arise at that time, the Witness tell you. The first Witness tells you, the first words that were spoken, were by Mr. Kidd; and upon his Answer, Mr. Kidd calls him lousse Dog. The Reply was, If I am so, you have made me so; You have ruin d me, and a great many more. Now, Gentlemen, I leave it to you to consider whether that could be a reasonable Occasion or Provocation for him to take a Bucket and knock him on the Head, and kill him. You have heard the Witneffes have made it out that he was a healthy Man, and they are of opinion that that blow was the occasion of his death. Now for the Prisoner, on such a Saying, and without any other Provocation, to take a Bucket and knock the Deceased on the head, and kill him, must be esteem'd an unjustifiable Act. For, as I faid, if one man kill another without Provocation, or reafonable Caufe, the Law prefumes and implies Malice; and then fuch Killing will be Murther, in the fence of the Law, as being done out of Malice prepense. If there be a sudden falling-out and fighting, and one is kill d in heat of blood, then our Law calls it Manslaughter : But in fuch a Case as this, that happens on flight Words, the Prisoner call'd the Deceased a lousse Dog; and the Deceased said, If I be so, you made me so; Can this be a reasonable Cause to kill him? And if you believe them to be no reafonable Caufe of Provocation, and that this Blow was given by the Prifoner, and was the occasion of Moore's death, as the Witnesse alledge, I can not see what distinction can be made, but that the Prifoner is Guilty of Murther. Indeed, if there had been a Mutiny at that time, and he had ftruck him at the time of the Mutiny, there might have been a reafonable cause for him to plead in his Defence, and it ought to have been taken into Confideration but it appears, that what Mutiny there was, was a Fortnight at least before. Therefore, Gentlemen, I must leave it to you; if you believe the King's Witnesse, and one of the Prisoner's own, that this Blow was given by the Prifoner, in manner aforefaid, and are fatisfied that it was done without reasonable Cause or Provocation, then he will be Guilty of Murther; and if you do believe him Guilty of Murther, upon this Evidence, you must find him so: If not, you must Acquit him. Mr. Moxon. My Lord, about the Year 1697. there was a Special Commiffion given to Four Perfons, and they were to proceed in their Voyage to the Indies, and they carried a great number of Proelamations, that all the Pira es in fuch and fuch Places thould Surrender themfelves. Now they came to St. Helena with them, and Capt. Warren was fent to St. Mary's, and he was to deliver fome of these Proclamations there, and the Commissioner had then the Embassiador to the Great Mogul on board, and this Capt Warren these Proclamations. Warren comes and delivers the Proclamations out, and among the reft the Prisoner at the Bar having Notice of this, he goes to the Governour, and confesse he had been a Pirate, and desir'd them to take Notice that he Surrendred himself; And we have the Governour here, to give an Account of this Matter.

L.C. B. Ward. The Proclamation fays they must Surrender themselves to fuch and fuch Perfons by Name. See if it be not fo. (Then the Proclamation was read again.) Here are feveral Qualifications mention'd; you must bring your felves under them, if you would have the benefit of it.

Dr. Newton. Let them show that they furrender'd themselves to the Persons they were to furrender to.

Mr. Moxon. My Lord, we will prove we gave Notice within the Time, by this Paper.

Mr. Sol. Gen. There is no Time mention'd in it. (The Affidavit was read.) Charles Hally, Gen. maketh Oath, That in the Year 98, there being Notice of His Majesty's Gracious Pardon to such Pirates as should surrender themselves, James Howe, Nic. Churchill, and Darby Mullins, in May 1699, did surrender themselves to Jeremiah Bass, and he did admit them to Bail.

L. C. B. Ward. There are Four Commissioners named in the Proclamation : There is no Governour mentioned that is to receive them, only those Four Commissioners.

Mr. Moxon. But my Lord, confider the Nature of this Proclamation, and what was the Defign of it, which was to invite Pirates to come in.

Mr. Coniers. We must keep you to the Proclamation. Here is not enough to put off the Tryal.

L. C. B. Ward. If you had brought your felves within the Cafe of the Proclamation, we fhould be very glad. You that offer it, muft confider it is a Special Proclamation, with divers Limitations; and if you would have the Benefit of it, you muft bring your felves under the Conditions of it. Now there are Four Commiffioners named, that you ought to furrender to; but you have not furrendered to any one of thefe, but to Col. Bafs, and there is no fuch Man mention'd in this Proclamation.

Mr. Knapp. My Lord, and Gentlemen of the Jury, The Indictment fets forth, That the Prisoners at the Bar, on the 30th of January, in the Ninth Year of His Majefty's Reign, ten Leagues distant from Cocheen, did Piratically feize and rob a certain Ship called the Quedagh-Merchant, and put the Men in fear of their Lives; and the faid Ship, with her Apparel, Tackle, and Goods, did then and there, upon the High Sea, take and carry away, against the Peace of our Sovereign Lord the King, his Crown and Dignity. To this Indictment they have Pleaded, Not Guilty. If we Prove it upon them, you must find them Guilty.

Dr. Newton, Advocate of the Admiralty. My Lord, and Gentlemen, The Prifoners at the Bar, Capt. Will. Kidd, late Commander of the Adventure Galley, and nine other Mariners in the fame Veffel, ftand Indicted for Felonioufly and Piratically Affaulting and Taking a Ship called the Quedagh Merchant, on the High Sea near Cutfheen, in the East-Indies, about the 30th of January, in the Ninth Year of His Majefty's Reign: The Ship was confiderable for its Force and Bulk, being about 400 Tun; and more confiderable for its Lading, having on board to the Value of many Thoufand Pounds.

This Capt. Kidd, who thus acted the Pirate himfelf, went from England in April 1696, with a Commission dated the 26th. of January preceding, to Take and Seize Pirates in the Indian Seas, which were then very much and very dangerously infested by them, to the great hazard, and loss, and ruine of the Merchant.

The Ship carried 30 Guns, and there were on board about 80 Men; but the Captain being come to New-Tork in July 96, pretending, as indeed it was defigned he fhould, and he had undertaken to make that Defign good, that he was going to Madagafcar, (which was the known and common Receptacle of the Pirates in those Seas) to take Pirates, and free the Seas from those Diffurbers of the Commerce of Mankind; fo many came in to him, being invited by Articles publickly fet up by him in that Place, that his number quickly encreased to 155 Men; a Force so further, if he had meant well, to have made him useful to the Publick; and to prove as mischievous, if his Defigns were otherwise: and what those were will quickly appear.

After calling in at feveral Places for Provisions, and among others at Madagascar, in July 97, he failed to Babs-key, a fmall Mand at the Entrance of the Red Sea, and a convenient flation for the observing what Vessels went from thence for the Indies; and now, instead of Taking Pirates, he becomes one himself, and the greatest and the worst of all. Here he staid Three Weeks, in expectation of the Mocca Fleet, to make his benefit and his Fortune out of it: For whatever he had before pretended, this was his real Design, and now so possels this mind, that he could not refrain from declaring, and that often, to his Men, That now he should make his Voyage and ballast his Ship with Gold and Silver. After long expectation, the Fleet, on the 14th of August, to the number of 14, came by: he fell in with the middle of them, fired several Guns at them; but finding they had an English and Dutch Convoy, that Design happily failed of the wish'd for Success.

This Difappointment however did not difcourage him, but that he proceeded on for the Coaft of Malabar, where he knew the Trade was confiderable, and hoped his Advantage would be proportionable in the difturbing it; and there accordingly, for feveral Months, he committed many great Piracies and Robberies, taking the Ships and Goods of the Indians, and others at Sea. Moors and Chriftians, and torturing cruelly their Perfons, to difcover if any thing had effcaped his hands; burning their Houfes, and killing after a barbarous manner the Natives on the Shore'; equally cruel, dreaded and hated both on the Land and at Sea.

ed any These Criminal Attempts and Actions had rendred his Name (to the Difgrace and the Prejudice of the English Nation) too well known, and deservedly detested, in those remote Parts of the World; and he was now looked upon as an Arch-Pirate, and the Common Enemy of Mankind; and accordingly two Portugues Men of War, went out in pursuit of hiss, and one met with and fought him for several hours; but Kidd's Fortune then referved him for another Place, and another manner of Tryal.

Amongs, the great number of Vessels he took on that Goast, was the Ship he now stands Indicted for, the Quedagh-Merchant, being then on a Trading Voyage from Bengal to Surate, the Commander English, Capt. Wright, the Owners Armenian Merchants, and others ; he had taken Moors before, but Moors and Christians are all alike to Pirates, they diffinguish not Nations or Religions,

Those on board the Vessel offered 30000 Rupper for her Ransom; but the Ship was, too confiderable to be parted with, even for fo great a Summ a for Kidd folds Goods out of her, on the neighbouring Coast, to the Value of Ten or Twelve Thousand Pounds; out of which her took whatever he could pretend to for Ammunition and Provisions, with Forsy Shares for himself; and the Remainder was disposed of amongs the Crew, and particularly chose who are here Indicted with him, who accompany'd him, who affisted him throughout in all his Piracies, and who now too share the Spoils and the Guilt with him.

With this Ship and another, and the Remainder of the Goods not fold on the Coalt, he failed once more for Madaga car, where he arrived in the beginning of May 98, and there again, what was left on board, was divided according to the fame Proportions, and amongst the same Perfons, as before, each Mariner having about Three Bales to his share.

Then the Jury brought in their Verdict against William Kidd for Murther, WAnd Dr. Newton proceeded;

It is not to be omitted, That at his return to Madagafeer, there came on board him fome Perfons from the Ship The Refolution, formerly the Mosca Frigar, -(for the Piratical Seizing of which Veffel there have been formerly Tryals and Convictions in this Place) of which Captain Gulliford, a Notorious Pirate, now in Cuftody, and againft whom two Bills have been found for Piracy, by the Grand Jury, was the Commander: They at firft feemed to be afreidrof. Kidd, but without any ground, as his former Actions had demonstrated, and the Sequel flewed. They who were hardned Pirates, and long inured to Villanies, could foarce think that any Man could fo betray the Truft and Confidence the Publick had placed in him, and faid, They heard he was come to take and hang them. But Capt. Kidd affured them, That he had no fuch Defigo, and that he had rather his Soul fhould broil in Hell, than do them any harm 3, bid them not be afraid, and fwore he would be True to them. And here indeed he did not brack his Word: This was his way of being True to his Truft, and making good the Ends of his Commifion, in acting with the greateft Treachery and the greateft Falfenefs that ever Man did. And to make all that has been reprefented of him true, Capt. Kidd and Capt. Calliford, as it was his Duty to have done, and his Force was fufficient to have performed it, he gave him Money and Ammunition, two Great Guns and Shot, and other Neceffaries to fit him out to Sea, that he might be in a condition the better to Take and Seize other Innocent Perfons.

His own Ship he now left, and went on board the Quedagh-Merchant; feveral of his Men then went from him, but not the Prisoners, they were all along Well-wishers and Affistants to him, fought for him, divided the Plunder with him, and are now come to be Tryed with him.

This, Gentlemen, is the Crime he is Indicted for, Piracy; the growing Trouble, Diffurbance and Mifchief of the Trading World, and the peaceable part of Mankind, the Scandal and Reproach of the European Nations, and the Christian Name, (1 with 1 could not fay, that the Kidd's and the Avery's had not made it more particularly fo of the English) amongst Muchometans and Pagans, in the extreamest Parts of the Earth; which turns not only to the Difadvantage of the immediate Sufferers, but of all such as Traffick in those Countries, whether Companies or single Merchants, who are to fuffer for the Misfortunes of others, with whom, it may be, they have no Dealings; and for the Villanies of such, whom they and all Mankind equally and justly detess and abhorr.

This is the Person that ftands Indicted at that Bar, than whom no one in this Age has done more Mischief, in this worft kind of Mischief; or has occasioned greater Confusion and Disorder, attended with all the Circumstances of Cruelty and Falshood, and a Complication of all manner of Ill.

If therefore these Facts shall be Proved upon him, you will then, Gentlemen, in finding him, Guilty, do Justice to the Injured World, the English Nation, (our Common Country) whose Interest and Welfare so much depend on the Encrease and Security of Trade; and, lastly, to your felves, whom the Law has made Judges of the Fact.

Mr. Sol. Gen. My Lord, and Gentlemen of the Jury, I am of Councel for the King, against the Prifoners at the Bar, in this Cafe, with the Doctor that has opened the Matter from the beginning. These Prifoners at the Bar went out with Commissions for good Purpose, though they made use of them to very bad. Gentlemen of the Jury, I must tell you, The Charge upon which you are to enquire, is only upon a certain Ship call'd the Quedagh-Mercham, and to that we fhall apply our Evidence. What was taken in her, has been opened already : Allwe will do now, is to call our Witneffes, and make out to your Satisfaction the things charged upon them.

10 .)

Mr. Coniers. My Lord, We shall prove this Charge by the Perfons that were Evidence before, Robert Bradinbam, and Joseph Palmer? They went out with Capt. Ridd in his Voyage, and he began it in April 1696. I believe it will be necessary that they give fome Account before this Piracy was committed, which was not in Time till February 1697. They will give you an Account of fome Plunders that happened before this, 'and then of the Taking of this Ship, and the Dividing it amongst them.

Mr. Justice Powell. When went they out?

Mr. Coniers. They began their Voyage in April 1696, and took this Ship in February 1697. They did all along that Voyage commit feveral Plunders on feveral Ships they thought a Prev. Their Delign was, not to take Pirates, but to take what they could get out of any Ships, Friends or Enemies : For in this Ship, the Quedagh-Merchant, which was a Moorifh Ship, there were feveral Armenians; and they offer'd them a great Summ of Money to redeem the Ship, but they refused it; and they disposed of the Goods, and divided the Money: And for the Proof of that, we will call Mr. Bradinbam.

Mr. Justice Powell. I understand that he had a Commission ; therefore if any one has a Commiffion, and he acts according to it, he is not a Pirate; but if he take a Commission for a colour. that he may be a Pirate, it will be bad indeed : And therefore if you can prove that he was a Pirate all along, this will be a great Evidence against him.

Mr. Coniers. My Lord, We will prove that ; fo that the Commission was but a Colour. Mr. Bradinham, Pray give my Lord and the Jury an Account when you began your Voyage, and your Proceedings afterwards.

Rob. Bradinham. "Sometime in the Year 1696, about the beginning of May, I, and others, were with Capt. Kidd : and we failed from Plymouth, defigning for New-York ; and in the way to Nem-Tork we met with a French Banker, and took her.

Mr. Coniers. Tell the Court what ship it was you went in, and with whom.

Rob. Bradinham. We went with Capt. Kidd, in the Adventure Galley.

Mrs. Coniers. What Number of Men had you when you went first out?

Rob. Bradinham. About Seventy or Eighty Men.

Mr. Coniers. What Force of Guns had you ? Rob. Bradinham. We had Thirty Guns. Mr. Coniers. In what Office was Capt. Kidd in the Ship?

Rob. Bradinham. He was the Commander of her.

Mr. Coniers. Now cell my Lord, and the Jury, what time you left England, and how you proceeded.

Rob. Bradinham. In May 1696, we left Plymouth, and went to New-York, and in the way met with a French Ship, and took her : And when we came to New-York, Capt. Kidd put up Articles, That if any Men would enter themselves on board his Ship, they should have their feveral Shares of what should be taken, and he himself was to have Forty Shares.

Mr. Coniers. What Number of Men did he get after these Articles were publish'd ?

Rob. Bradinham. He carried from New-York an Hundred and fifty five Men.

Mr. Coniers. Whither did he fail then ?

Rob. Bradinham. To the Madera's, from thence to Bonavis, from thence to St. Jago, from thence to Madagafcar, from thence to Joanna, from thence to Mahala, from Mahala to Joanna again, and from thence to the Red-Sea ; and there we waited for the Mocca Fleet. They passed us one Night, and he pursued them, and went among them, and was designed to take what he could of them; but he found they were too ftrong for him, and was fain to leave them.

Mr. Cooper. How long did you lie in wait for that Fleet ?

Rob. Bradinham. A Fortnight or Three Weeks.

Mr. Cooper. Did he express himself so, that he did lie in wait for that Fleet ?

Rob. Bradinham. Yes: He faid that he did defign to make a Voyage out of them.

Mr. Cooper. Did he not lie in wait for any French Effects in that Fleet ?

Rob. Bradunham. No ; only for the Moorish Fleet.

Mr. Cooper. What do you mean by the Moorifh Fleet ?

Rob: Bradinham. The Natives of India, the Mahometans.

Mr. Cooper. Where did you lie in wait for that Fleet? Mr. Cooper. In the Mouth of it? Rob. Bradinham Mr. Cooper. Is it a fit Place for that purpose? Rob. Bradinbam. In the Red-Sea. Rob. Bradinham. Yes.

Rob. Bradinham. Several Sail of Ships may lie there.

Mr. Cooper. Did you expect them? Rob. Bradinham. Yes; Capt. Kidd waited for them. Rob. Bradinham About a Fortnight. Mr. Coniers. How long did you ftay there? Mr. Coniers. Did you do any thing in that time to get Intelligence ?

Rob. Bradinham. Capt. Kidd fent his Boat three times to Mocca, to fee if they could make any Discovery ; and the two first times they could make none ; but the third time they brought word the Ships were ready to fail : And accordingly they came, and we failed after them, and fell in with them, and Capt. Kidd fired at them.

Mr. Cooper. You fay, he fent his Boat three times for Intelligence ; Can you remember what Answer they brought?

we De Rob. Bradinham. The two first times they brought no Intelligence, but the third time they we, brought word that fourteen or fifteen Ships were ready to fail. Mr. Cooper. What Colours did they fay they had? Rob. Bradinham. I cannot tell that. When Capt. Kidd had fetch'd them up, he found they bewere under Convoy, and fo he left them : And then he was going to the Coast of Malabar, and ige. unt by the way met with Capt. Parker. give Mr. Justice Powel. Did they fire any Guns at the Mosca Fleet ? Rob. Bradinbam. Yes ; Capt. Kidd fired divers Guns at them. this Mr. Coniers. After fuch time as you left the Mocca Fleet, What happened after that ? Recollect your felf. 97. Rob. Bradinham. We took a Ship that C. Parker was Commander of, between Carawar and rey. the Red-Sea. nips, Mr. Coniers. What Ship was this that Capt. Parker was Commander of ? Rob. Bradinham. A Moorif Ship, the came from Bombay, and Capt. Parker was the Mafter, here lip, Mr. Coniers. What did you take from this Ship? the ¹ Capt. Kidd took out Parker, and a Portuguese for a Linguister. Rob. Bradinikiam. 'Capt. Kidd took out Parker, and a Portus Mr. Conters. A Linguister; What do you mean by that? Rob. Bradmham. An Interpreter. He took out of her a Bail of Coffee, a Bail of Pepper, omabout twenty Pieces of Arabian Gold, and order'd fome Men to be taken and hoisted up by the Our, rasia Arms, and drub'd with a naked Cutlace. Mr. Coniers. Why did he do that? Rob. Bradinham. That they might confess what Money they had. our. and Mr. Coniers. Were those Men Frenchmen that were thus used ? Rob. Bradinham. No; they were Moors. Mr. Coniers. Was there any Demand made of those Men, Capt. Parker, and the Portuguese? iers, Rob. Bradinham. Yes: The English Factory fent for this Parker and the Portuguese, and he way deny'd that he had any fuch Perfons on board, for he kept them in a Hole. Mr. Coniers. Do you know any thing more? Rob. Bradinham. Then he went to Sea, and that Night he met with a Portuguesse Man of War; the next Morning he came up with her, and the Portuguese first fired at Capt. Kidd, and he at him again : they fought four or five hours; Capt. Kidd had ten Men wounded. Rob. Bradinham. No. Mr. Coniers. So that there was nothing more than Fighting. Mr. Coniers. Go on ? What did you do next ? uns. Rob. Bradinham. We went to the Coast of Malabar. Mr. Coniers. What did you go thither for ? you Rob. Bradinham. We went to one of the Malabar Islands for Wood and Water, and Capt. Kidd went a-fhore, and feveral of his Men, and plunder'd feveral Boats, and burnt feveral Houfes, and met order'd one of the Natives to be ty'd to a Tree, and one of his Men to shoot him. t up Mr. Coniers. Pray go on : What was the reason of his shooting this Indian ? hèir Rob. Bradinham. One of his Men, that was his Cooper, had been a fhore, and fome of the Natives had cut this Man's Throat, and that was the reafon he order'd his Men to ferve this Man 10. Mr. Coniers. Pray go on, and give an Account what happened afterwards. Rob. Bradinham. L. C. B. Ward. You did not Surrender your felf, but only you had a liberty to go away, and did not.

H. Parrot. I thought there was no need of it. My Lord, I defire you will ask the Witnefs whether I ever difobeyed my Captain's Cammands.

L. C. B. Ward. They fay no otherwife, but that you went willingly.

Cl. of Arr. Rich. Barlicorn, what have you to fay? R. Barlicorn. My Lord, I beg leave that I may produce fome Evidence for my Reputa-tion. Here is a Certificate from the Parifh where I was born. L. C. B. Ward. That will fignify nothing, we cannot read Certificates; they must fpeak

He faid, at Madagafcar. L.C.B. Ward. Mr. Bradinham was with them, there is no doubt of that. It is not to be

Mr. B. Hat fell. To be fure they had a good opinion of him in 1695, when they granted him the Commission.

Will. Kid. There is nothing in the World can make it appear I was guilty of Piracy, I kept company with Capt. Warren for fix days.

Mr. Coniers. I believe you kept company more with Capt. Culliford, than with Captain Warren.

Will. Kid, I never defigned to do any fuch thing.

Mr. Coniers. My Lord, we will fay nothing at all, but leave it to your Lordship to direct the Jury.

Will. Kid. I have many Papers for my Defence, if I could have had them.

L. C. B. Ward. If you had any thing of Difability upon you, to make your Defence, you fhould have objected it at the beginning of your Trial; what you mean by it now, I cannot tell. If you have any thing more to fay, you may fay it, the Court is ready to hear you.

L. C. B. Ward. Gentlemen of the Jury, the Prisoners at the Bar, W. Kid, N. Churchill, J. How, R. Lamly, Will. Jenkins, Gabriel Loff, Hugh Parrot, Rich. Barlicorn, Abel Owens, and Darby Mullins, in number Ten; ftand all here Indicted for the Crime of Piracy, charg'd to be committed by them. And the inftance of the Crime, is for Fellonioufly and Piratically Seizing and Taking the Ship call'd the Quedab Merchant, with the Apparel and Tackling thereof, to the value of 400% and divers Goods mentioned in the Indictment, to the value of 4500 1. the Goods of feveral Persons unknown, from the Mariners of the faid Ship, and this at high Sea, within the Jurifdiction of the Court of Admiralty, about ten Leagues from Cutseen in the East-Indies the 30th of Fanuary, 1697, and in the 9th Year of his Majelty's Reign. Now whether all, or any, and which of these Prisoners are Guilty of this Crime of Piracy laid in this Indicement, or not Guilty, it is your part to determine according to the Evidence that has been given on both fides. The Crime charged on them is Piracy, that is, Seizing and Taking this Ship and Goods in it Piratically and Felloniously; the time and place is laid alfo in the Indicement. To make good this Accufation, the King's Council have produced their Evidence; and two Witneffes have been Examined in this cafe, each of them were in the fame Ship which took the Quedab Merchant, and very well acquain-ted with all the proceedings, that is, Rob. Bradinham, and Joseph Palmer. The first has given you an Historical account of the whole proceedings of Capt. Kid, from his first going. out of England in the Adventure Gally, to the time of this fact charged on them. They tell you, that about May 1696, the King intrufted this Capt. Kid with two Commissions, and they were both read to you. By one of them, under the Admiralty Seal, he was Autho-rized to fer out as a Privateer the Adventure Gally, and therewish to Take and Seize the Ships and Goods belonging to the French King, or his Subjects, and fuch other as were liable to Confifcation! And by the other Committion under the Broad Seal of England, Authority was given for the taking of fome Pirates by Name, and all other Pirates in the feveral places therein mentioned. But in no fort to offend or moleft any of the King's Friends or Allies, their Ships or Subjects by colour thereof. And by both Commiffions command was given to bring all fuch Ships and Goods, as fhould be taken to legal Trials and Condemnations. They tell us, that this Ship fet out from Plimouth about May, 1696, and that in their Passage, they did take a French Ship, and they did Condemn that Ship. Now Gentlemen, you must bear this in your Minds, that to make it Piracy, it must be the taking Piratically and Feloniously upon the High Sea, within the Jurifdiction of the Admiralty of England, the Goods of a Friend, that is fuch as are in Amity with the King. Now you fee what way they went to work, and what measures they took. Capt. Kid goes out, and goes to New-York; and when he was there, he has a project in his Head of fetting up Articles between himfelf and the People that were willing to be concern'd with him? For now whether it feems more probable from what followed that Capt. Kid defigned to manage himfelf according to the meafures given him, and the Powers of his Commissions, or another way, you must confider, for it is told you that between 150, and 160 Men came in under those Articles, whereof the other other Prisoners were part and concern'd in them. And as to those Articles, the import of them was, that whatever should be taken by these people in their Expeditions, should be divided into 160 parts, whereof Capt. Kid was to have 40 shares for his part, and the rest were to have according to the merit of each party, fome whole thares, and fome half thares.

Now after these Articles, you perceive what Progress they made, and what Course they took. They went from one place to another, and used a pretty deal of Severity wherever they came. A defign they had to go into the Red-Sea, and they had expectations of the Moco Fleet that lay at Moco, and they fent their Spies three times to get Intelligence. The two first times they could make no Difcovery, but the third time they made an effectual Difco-very that the Fleet was ready to Sail; and in the mean time Capt. Kid lay there in expectation of this Fleet; and as the first Witnefs tells you, Capt. Kid faid he intended to make a Voyage out of this Fleet. Well, he had a Difcovery of this Fleet, and they came accordingly, and they tell you, that he and his Men in the Ship did attack one of the Ships: But thefe Ships being quarted by two Men of War, he could made nothing of them however be showed what being guarded by two Men of War, he could made nothing of them, however he shewed what his intention and defign was. Could he have proved that what he did was in purfuance of his Commissions, it had been something; But what had he to do to make any attack on these Ships, the Owners and Freighters whereof, were in Amity with the King; this does not appear to be an action fuitable to his Commission. After he had done this, he came to Land, and there, and afterwards at Sea, purfued ftrange methods, as you have heard. The feeming juftification he depends on, is his Commissions; now it must be observed how he acted with relation to them, and what irregularities he went by. He came to a place in the Indies, and fent his Cooper ashore, and that Cooper was killed by the Natives; and he uses Barbarity, and ties an Indian to a Tree, and shoots him to Death. Now he went from place to place, and committed Hoftilities upon feveral Ships, dealing very feverely with the People.

But this being fomething foreign to the Indictment, and not the Facts for which the Prisoners at Bar are Indicted, we are confined to the Quedab Merchant; but what he did before shews his Mind and Intentions not to act by his Commissions, which warrant no fuch things. Gentlemen, you have an account that he met with this Ship the Quedab Merchant at Sea, and took her; that this Ship belonged to People in Amity with the King of England; that he feized this Ship, and divers Goods were taken out of her, and fold, and the Money divided purfuant to the heads contained in those Articles fet up at New-York. The Wit-neffes that speak to that, come home to every one of the Prisoners: They tell you that this Dividend was made, that Capt. Kid had 40 Shares of the Money, and the reft of the Prifoners had their proportions according to the Articles, fome whole fhares, and fome a half fhare of that Money. After they had feized on the Ship, you hear of a certain fort of project, that a French Man should come and pretend himself the Master, and produce, or pretend to produce a French Pafs, under a colour that these Peoples Ship and Goods, who were Moors, should be French Men's Ship and Goods, or Sailed under a French Pafs, and so justify what they did under the colour of his Commission from the King. Now no Man knows the Mind and Intention of another, but as it may be discovered by his Actions. If he would have this to be understood to be his Intention, or that it was a reality, that he took this as a French Ship, or under a French Pafs, then he ought to have had the Ship and Goods inventoried, and Condemned, according to Law, that he might have had what proportion belonged to and Condemned, according to Law, that he might have had what proportion belonged to him, and that the King might have had what belonged to him, as his Commiffions directed. But here was nothing of that done, but the Money and Goods that were taken were fhared ; and you have an account likewife how fome of the Goods were fold, and the Money difpofed of, and how the remaining Goods were difpofed of; and one Witnefs fpeaks politively of the diffribution of the Goods that remain'd unfold, that they were divided according to the fame proportions as the Articles mentioned, and every one of the Prifoners had his fhare. There belonged 40 fhares to Capt. Kid, and shares and half shares to the rest.

Now this is the great case that is before you, on which the Indictment turns. The Ship and Goods, as you have heard, are faid by the Witneffes, to be the Goods of the Arme-The Ship nians, and other People that were in Amity with the King; and Capt. Kid would have them to be the Goods of French Men, or at leaft that the Ship was Sailed under French Paffes. Now if it were fo, as Capt. Kid fays, it was a lawful Prize, and liable to Con-fifcation, but if they were the Goods of Perfons in Amity with the King, and the Ship was not Navigated under French Paffes, it is very plain it was a Piratical taking of them. Gentlemen, it is to be confidered what Evidence Capt. Kid hath given to prove that Ship and Goods to belong to the French King, or his Subjects, of that the Ship was Sailed under and Goods to belong to the French King, or his Subjects, or that the Ship was Sailed under a French Pafs, or indeed that ever there was a French Pafs fhewn or feen. He appeals indeed to the Witneffes over and over again, Did you never fee it? No, fay they, Nor did not you, faith he, fay you faw it? No, faith the Witnefs, I faid that Capt. Kid faid he had a French Pafs, but I never faw it. Now after all, the taking of the Quedab Merchant is brought down to Mr. Kid, and the Prifoners with others, and the diffribution of the Money produced by the Sale of the Goods among Mr. Kid, and his Crew, whereof every one of these Prisoners were prefent at the fame time, and had their Proportions.

Now Gentlemen, this must be observed, if this was a Capture on the High Sea, and these were the Goods of Persons in Amity with the King, and had no French Pass, then it is a plain Piracy. For if you believe the Witneffes, here is a taking of the Goods and Ship of Per-fons in Amity, and converting them to their own Ufe. Such a taking at Land as this would would be Felony, and being at Sea it will be Piracy: For this is a taking the Ship from the right Owners, and turning it to their own ufe. So that you have Evidence as to the Seizing of the Ship, and dividing the Money rifing from the Goods fold, and fharing the remainder according to the Articles.

Now, what does Capt. Kid fay to all this? He has told you he acted purfuant to his Commission; but that cannot be, unless he gives you fatisfaction that the Ship and Goods belonged to the French King, or his Subjects, or that the Ship had a French Pafs, otherwife neither of them will excufe him from being a Pirate; for if he takes the Goods of Friends he is a Pirate, he had no Authority for that : There is no colour from either of his Commissions for him to take them. And as to the French Passes, there is nothing of that appears by any Proof, and for ought I can fee, none faw them but himfelf, if there were ever any. It is proved that the People that were Owners of the Goods, made him very large Offers to redeem the Ship (Twenty Thoufand Rupees, as I remember) but he would not accept their Proposal; but faid, That is a finall Summ, the Cargo is worth a great deal more, or to that effect: And further faid, he must answer these People, that his Men will not part with it. And a Frendh Man was to be fet up for a Mock bufinefs, as you have heard; and if the Witneffes fay true, they were faid by the Captain of the Ship to be, and were reputed to be, the Ship and Goods of Friends, and not of Enemies; and if they were fo, and had no French Pafs, then is he, and those that were concerned with him, guilty of Piratically taking this Ship, and of Piratically feizing the Goods in the Ship; and neither of his Commissions will justify fuch an Action as this. If he had acted pursuant to his Commission, he ought to have condemned the Ship and Goods, if they were a French Interest, or Sailed under a French Pass, but by his not condemning them, he seems to shew his Aim, Mind and Intention, that he did not act in that Cafe by virtue of his Commission, but quite contrary to it; for he takes the Ship, and fhares the Money and Goods, and is taken in that very Ship by my Lord Bellamont, and he had continued in that Ship till that time, fo that there is no colour or pretence appears, that he intended to bring this Ship to England to be condemned, or to have condemned it in any of the Engli/h Plantations, having difposed of the whole Cargo as aforefaid. Here I must leave it to you, to confider whether, according to the Evidence that appears, there is any Ground for him to fay, he has acted by his Commission in taking the Quedab Merchant and Goods in her, or whether he has not acted contrary thereunto.

Now for himfelf he has called fome Perfons here, to give an account of his Reputation, and of his Services done in the Weft Indies; and one of them fays, about 10 or 12 Years ago, he did good Service there. Why fo he might, and might have, and 'tis very like he had fuch Reputation, when the King trufted him with these Commissions, elfe I believe he had never had them; fo that whatever he might be fo many Years ago, that is not a matter to be infifted on now, but what he hath been fince, and how he hath acted in this matter charged against him. So that, Gentlemen, as to Mr. Kid, I must leave it to you, whether he is Guilty of Piracy or no, and if you believe him Guilty upon the Evidence, you will find him fo, if not you will acquit him.

Now for the other Prifoners, it is proved they were all concerned in taking and fharing the Ship and Goods in the Indictment; yet their Circumstances differ pretty much among themfelves. There are three of them, that it has been made out to you, and owned by the King's Witneffes that they were Servants. Robert Lamley, William Jenkins, Richard Barlicorn. All thefe are made out to be Servants, and you have had the Indentures of two of them produced, and the King's Witneffes prove them fo, and they were admitted to be Servants. Now, Gentlemen, there must go an Intention of the Mind, and a Freedom of the Will, to the committing of a Felony or Piracy. A Pirate is not to be understood to be under constraint, but a free Agent; for in this case, the bare Act will not make him Guilty, unlefs the Will make it fo. Now a Servant, it is true, if he go voluntarily, and have his Proportion, he must be accounted a Pirate, for then he Acts upon his own account, and not by Compulsion. And these perfons, according to the Evidence, received their Part, but whether they accounted to their Mafters for their fhares afterwards, yea or no, as they pre-tend, but make no proof of it, I muft leave that to you; and therefore there is a confide-ration to be had of them. For if these Men did go under the Compulsion of their Masters, to whom they were Servants, and not voluntarily, and upon their own Accounts, it may difference their Cafe from others, who went and acted willingly in this matter, and upon their own Accounts. So that as to those that were Servants under the command of their Mafters that were prefent with them, I must leave it to you, whether you will diffingush between them and the others that were not Servants, but free Agents. It is true, a Servant is not bound to obey his Master, but in lawful things, which they fay they thought this was, and that they knew not to the contrary, but that their Masters acted according to the King's Commission, and therefore their case must be left to your confideration, whether you think them upon the whole matter Guilty or no. If you believe them Guilty, you will find them fo, otherwife you will Acquit them.

For the other Perfons, fome of them pretend they came in on his Majefty's Proclamation, and for that you mult confider the Evidence, and take it all together, and confider whether you are fatisfied by what they have faid or proved, that they have brought themfelves within the benefit of the King's Favour by that Proclamation. You have heard it read, and observed the Qualifications and Directions by it, and the Terms upon which the Pardon was promifed, which are not made out to you, to be complied with by them; they may apply another way, for the King's Mercy; this Court must proceed according to the Rules of Law and Justice. But then all of them hold on this: We were, fay they, under the Captain, and acted under him as their Commander, and, Gentlemen, to far as they acted under his lawful Commands, and by Virtue, and in Putfuance of his Committions, it must be admitted they were Juftifyable, and ought to be Juftify'd. But how far forth that hath been the Actions of the Captain and their own, will belt make it appear. It is not contested, but that these Men knew, and were fensible of what was done and acted, and did take part in it, and had the benefit of what was taken, shared amongst them: And if the taking of this Ship and Goods was Un-lawful, then these Men can claim no Advantage by these Commissions, because they had no Authority by them to do what they did, but acted quite contrary to them. What had they to do to enter into such Articles, and to act as they did? You must confider the Evidence given here, according to the Rules of the Law, and if you are fatisfy'd that they have Knowingly and Wilfully been concerned of partaken with Capt. Kid in that they have Knowingly and Wilfully been concerned or partaken with Capt, Kid, in taking this Ship, and dividing the Goods, and that Piratically and Felonioufly, then they will be Guilty within this Indictment. It is worthy of confideration what appears upon the Evidence, that they met with one reputed to be a Notorious Pirare, call'd Culliford; he was efteemed an Arch-Pirate, and known to be fo, yet this Capt. Kid, that was Commission'd to take Pirates, instead of taking him, grows to such an Intimacy with him, that he faid he would have his Soul fry in Hell, before he would hurt him, or to that effect, and fo they made Prefents one to another; and Capt. Kid left three of his Men with him. Whilft Men purfue their Commissions, they must be Justify'd, but when they do things not Authorized, or never acted by them, it is as if there had been no Commission at all. I have diffinguished the Evidence as well as my memory ferves me, and mult leave it to you to determine upon the whole matter, who are Guilty, and who not; and fuch as you are fatisfied to be Guilty, you will find fo, and fuch as you are not fatisfy'd to be Guilty, you will acquit.

N. Churchill. My Lord, I plead Guilty, and rely on the King's Proclamation. Cl. of Arr. James, Hawe, have you any thing to fay for your felf?

7. Home. I plead Guilty, my Lord.

Will. Kid. Here are some Gentlemen here, I desire they may be heard as to my Reputation. Here is Coll. Hewfon.

Mr. J. Turton. What do you ask Coll. Herefon?

Will. Kid. 1 ask him what he knows as to my Reputation in the West Indies ?

Coll. Hewfon. My Lord, he was a mighty man there. He ferved under my Command. He was fent to me by the order of Coll. Codrington.

Mr. Sall. Gen. How long, was this ago? Coll. Hewfon. About Nine Years ago. He was with me in two Engagements against the French, and fought as well as any man I ever faw, according to the proportion of his men. We had fix Frenchmen to deal with, and we had only mine and his Ship.

Will. Kid. Do you think I was a Pirate?

Coll. H wfon. I know his men would have gone a pirateering, and he refused it, and his men feized upon his Ship. And when he went this Voyage, he confulted me, and told me they had engaged him in fuch an Expedition; and I told him he had enough already, and might be contented with what he had : And he faid it was his own inclination; but my Lord Bellamont told him, if he did not go the Voyage, that there were Great Men, and they would ftop his Brigantine in the River, if he did not go.

Mr. J. Turton. Who told you fo, did he?

Coll. Herefon. Yes, my Lord.

Mr. J. Turson. If he had kept to the honeft Defign of that Expedition, he had done very well. Did you apprehend that his Intention in that Undertaking was to be a Pirate?

Coll. Hewfon. No, my Lord. He told me his bufinels was to go a cruiling, and furprize Pirates. Mr. Soll. Gen. Did he tell you he had no fuch Defign?

Coll. Hemfon. Yes, he faid he would be shot to death before he would do any such thing. I know he was very ferviceable in the West-Indies,

Cl. of Arr. Robert Lamley, have you any thing more to fay ?

Rob. Lamley. I can fay nothing, for I have none of my Friends here.

Will. Kid. Call Thomas Cooper. (Who appear'd.)

Mr. J. Turton. What questions do you ask him? Will. Kid. Sir, pray tell my Lord what you knew of me in the Indies.

The. Cooper. I was aboard the Lion, and this Capt. Kid brought his Ship from a place that be-longed to the Dutch, and brought her into the King's Service at the beginning of the War, about Ten Years ago. And he took Service under the Colonel; and we fought Monfieur Du Cofs a whole day, and I thank God we got the better of it, and Capt. Kid behaved himfelf very well in the face of his Enemies.

Juryman. How many Years ago was this? Tho. C Cl. of Arr. Rob. Lamley, have you any thing more to fay? R. Lamley. I have no Friends here, I am a Prentice, my Lord. Tho. Cooper. About Ten Years ago.

Cl. of Arr. Will. Jeakins, have you any more to fay?

Will. Jenkins. I was an Apprentice, my Lord.

Cl. of Arr. Gabriet Loff, have you any thing to fay for your felf ?

G. Loff. My Lord, I was a Servant under Capt. Kid, and always obeyed his Commands, and had no Share. I came home with Captain Kid to Bofton, and went to my Lord Bellamont, and the men came and told us he had discharged us, and I went about my business. And some days after we were committed to Prison, and I was fick, and my Lord let me be in the Keeper's House, and I was trutted by him four or five Months with the Keys to look after the Prifoners. Mr. Davis can teffify this. If I had had a mind to have done any ill thing, I might have done it then. (Then Davis appeared.) Pray, Mr. Davis, declare what you know of me when I came to Bofton, and how the Keeper intrusted me with the Prisoners.

Mr. Davis. I remember when we came there to the Road-Island, Capt. Kid fent him home. And when he came to Bofton, he was trufted with the Keys, and had liberty to go where he pleased, not out of the Yard.

Mr. J. Turton. Was this after he was a Prisoner?

Mr. Davis. Yes, my Lord.

R. Lamley. I hope the Jury will take notice of this. Will. Kid. Mr. Davis, did you not hear of any French Paffes that I had ?

Mr. Davis. I heard of them, and I faw them.

Mr. Soll. Gen. How do you know they were French Passes?

Mr. Davis. He told me they were French Paffes, I did not know it, I could not read them. Mr. J. Turton. They shewed you the Papers, did you know what Ship they belonged to? Mr. Davis. No, my Lord, not 1.

Will, Kid. Now, my Lord, in purfuance of this Commission I went and took these Ships, which had French Paffes on board, and my Lord Bellamont took them by force from me.

Mr. J. Turton. You took one French Ship, and acted in a regular manner to condemn her, but did you do fo with the reft?

Will. Kid I could not carry these Ships home, by reason my men left me.

Mr. J. Turton. Mr. Bradinbam, with what number of men did you go out of England? R. Bradinham. With about Seventy men.

Mr. J. Turton. What number had you when you went from New York ?

R Bradinbam. About 155.

Mr. J Turton. So that your number was increased. R. Bradinham. Yes, my Lord.

Mr. J. Turton. Was there any other Ship condemned, belides the French Banker. R. Bradinham No, my Lord.

Will. Kid. Thefe men were fome of them that left me, and took the Goods. What was left I carried with me.

Cl. of Arr. Hugh Parrot, have you any more to fay? H. Parrot. The Evidence cannot prove that I had any thate. I came with my Commander from Madagascar, and he paid me an hundred Pieces of Eight, and my Lord Bellamont seized all. And I had opportunity enough to have gone a pirateering with Capt. Culliford, but I told them I would not. And I came to my Lord Bellamont, and furrendred my felf.

Cl. of Arr. R Barlicorn, have you any thing to fay in your own defence ?

R. Barlicorn. I defire Witnefs may be called, to know whether I was not a Servant aboard. Mr. J. Turton. The King's Evidence fay you were. C. of Arr: Abel Owens, what have you to fay?

Abel. Owens. I own my felf guilty. I came in upon the King's Proclamation.

Cl. of Arr. Darby Molins, what have you to fay?

D. Molins. I did what I did under the King's Commission. I obeyed my Captain, and came home with him. I durst not for my life do otherwise. Examine the Witnesses, and they will not fay otherwise. Mr. Bradinbam, did I do any thing against the Captain's command ?

R. Bradinham. I cannot fay but he did always obey the Captain's commands.

Mr. Soll. Gen. Did he not go aboard Capt. Culliford afterwards ? R. Bradinham Yes, my Lord.

D. Molins. I went for want.

Cl. of Arr. Have any of you any more to fay ?

H. Parros. My Lord, I did not go out of England with Capt. Kid, but I thipt my felf on board a Merchantman bound for Newfoundland, and I was taken by a French Privateer. And afterwards coming to Madogafear, Capt. Kid was there, and he took a Piftol to floot me, but I avoided it. But hearing afterwards that Capt. Kid had the King's Commission, I went aboard him.

Mr. J. Turton. Had he any Commiffion to take any Goods from the King's Subjects ?

Mn B. Hassel. Capt. Kid lays the Seamen forced him from the Ship, and you thated the Goods your selves.

H. Parret. He does not fay fo of us. My Lord, with fubmiffion, be pleafed to ask my Commander, whether I ever difoseyed his Gommands, or was forward to attempt any ill thing, or did any thing of that which is alledged against me.

Will. Kid. Mr. Bradinham, are not you promifed your Life, to take away mine?

M. J Turton. He is not bound to answer that question. He is very fit to be made an Evidence for the King, perhaps there can be no other in this Cafe, than fuch who are in his Circumstances.

H. Parrot. With submission, I ask the Evidence whether I ever disobey'd the Captain's Orders. Mr. J. Turton. The Captain's Orders will excuse you in honest things, but not in unlawful actions.

H Parrot. As for the Ships that were taken, I had ho hand in it.

Mr. Knapp. But you received your Share, and knew of the robbing of the Ships.

Mr. J. Turton. Gentlemen of the Jury, Here is Will Kid, Nich. Churchill, James Howe, Rob. Lamley, Will. Jonkins. Gabr Loff, Hugh Parrot, Rich. Barlisorn, Abel Owens, and Darby Molins, the Pilloners at the Bar; who are all indicted for Piracy, or piratical and felonious taking a Msorifb Ship on the High Seas, about fifty Leagues from Carawar in the East-Indies, and feizing the Goods that were in that Ship, to a confiderable value. And they are also indicted for the piratical and felonious taking another Ship, which was likewife a Moorifh Ship, with the Tackle and Arparel thereof, to the value of 105 l. four Leagues from Calient in the East Indies. Now to these Indications they have pleaded, Not Guilty. And whether they are guilty or no, you are to determine, on the Evidence you have heard.

I need not tell you the Heinousness of this Offence wherewith they are charged, and of what ill contequence it is to all Trading Nations. Pyrates are called Hoftes bumani generis, the Enemies to all mankind, but they are especially so to those that depend upon Trade. And these things that they stand charged with, are the most mischievous and prejudicial to Trade that can happen. But as it is not my business to aggravate the Offence, so it is yours to consider whether they or any of them are guilty or not.

Two Witneffes have been produced for the King, and both of them were concerned in all the transactions relating to the Prisoners. And by their Evidence it appears, that in the Year 1696, about the beginning of May, Capt. Kid, who was Captain of the Adventure Gally, was fitted out on a very good defign, for he was to take Pyrates, and to feize the Ships and Effects of the King's Enemies, That was the end of this Expedition. He went out from Plimoutb with about Seventy Men From England; they failed to New-Tork, and in their paffage they feized a French Veffel; and that Veffel was condemned in a due manner, and that was pursuant to their Commission,

When they came to New-York, there were other things in contemplation; then he made a Proclamation, to give notice, that if any would come aboard him, he proposed terms for their encouragement that they should be Shareres in all they could acquire; He himself would have Forty Shares, because the Ship, Arms, Ammunition and Provisions were his, and the rest should be divided proportionably to those that should be aboard him. And whereas they went out with Seventy Men, there their number was encreased to 155. for with that number he Sailed from New-York.

Gentlemen, The Witneffes tell you whither they went afterwards; I will not mention all the particular places, but only fuch where any thing remarkably was done. They fay they c me to a place called Babs Key; and there it feems they had an intention to obferve a Fleet called the Moco Fleet, there they flayed about three Weeks, and in that time Capt. Kid fent his Boat three times to Moco, where this Fleet was; the two first times they brought no certain account; but the laft Boat that was fent, brought intelligence that there were 14 or 15 Ships lay in the River or Harbour there, and were ready to Sail, and that they had Dutch Colours, English Colours, and Moerish Colours. And Capt. Kid faid then, he expected to make a confiderable advantage of them. And after this advertifement, he fent fome men to the High Lands to obferve the motion of this Fleet, who after fome time gave notice that the Fleet was coming, and then he went out with his Veffel; and, as they tell you; he went into this Fleet, and difcharged fome Guns at them. But they having a Convoy, he found he was not a match for them, and that it would be in vain to attempt any thing further on fo great a difadvantage; and fo that defign was fruitrated. But it must be observed, that these Ships were all English, Dutch, and Moorish, and none of them French, which fhews Capt. Kid's inclinations to take fuch Ships for which he had no authority by any Committion.

But they tell you, after this, when he had met with this difappointment, then he Sailed towards the Coaft of Carawar; And there they met with the first Moorifb Ship that he is now charged with. And this Ship they feized, and took one Parker, who was the Captain; they feized him, and alfo a Portuguife, whom they made use of as an Interpreter, and some of the men, who they treated in a barbarous manner. They tell you, that there happening to be an Englifb Factory near that place, they of that Factory understandining that this Parker and the Portuguife were aboard the Ship, they fent to demand them; and Capt. Kid denied them, and faid there were no such men on Board, and yet he had hid them under the Deck. You are also told by the Witnesses what they found and feized aboard this Ship, viz. Pepper, Cosffee, Myrth, and some Gold. They have told you, the Gold was shared amongst them, and in Specie, as I remember, every Mess had two pieces, and the reft of the Goods were divided amongst them in proportion, according to their original Agreement, or they had their Shares of the Money for which they were fold. This was the first Ship that he stands charged with the Piratical taking of; and this Ship was a Moorifb Ship, and did belong to the Natives of that Place.

And then it appears they went to the Coast of Malabar, and there they took the other Ship that he is charged with by the other Indictment ; the first was taken in September, and this in November. There was on Board that Ship two Horfes, and feveral Bails of Cotton, and some other Goods; and this also belonged to the Moors, and one Skipper Mitchel, a Dutchman, was Capt. of her. When they had taken this Ship, they went to Madagafear ; and there it is told you, they Sunk this Veffel. And they having feveral other Goods that they had taken out of another Veffel, the Goods were Sold, and divided between the Captain and the reft of the men, according to their feveral proportions. And it is proved to you, that every one of these Prisoners had some share of the product of those Goods. And to show what Capt. Kid was, and that he was a favourer of those he ought to have opposed, there was another Pirate there, one Capt. Culliford, who had a Veffel that he used to the same purpose, called the Great Mabomet ; And he having heard of Kid's Commission, had a Jealousie that Capt. Kid had a delign to take him and his Company: But he told them he had no fuch defign, he was fo far from that, that he affured them, nay Swore he would be True to them, and there were great appearances of friendship between Capt. Kid and Capt. Culliford, they made mutual visits to each other. And Capt. Kid did accommodate Culliford with fome Guns, and gave him liberty to take any thing he had; and Capt. Culliford likewife prefented him with China Silks. Now this alfo is given in evidence, to show that Capt. Kid had a Piratical defign in all this, and that he did affilt those that were engaged in the like defign with him, instead of endeavouring to suppress them.

And he tells you how they went affore on one of the Maliahar Islands, and how they burnt lome Houses, and did other very barbarous things. Eut that concerns not this matter for which they are now indicted. He tells you also, that when they took one of these Ships, whereof Capt. Parkr was Commander, they took two of the Men on board that Ship, and hoisted them up, and used them severely, which they did to cause them to discover what things of value they had on board; but it feems they had nothing of any confiderable worth on board. However this fhows that Capt. Kid had a design to act Piratically. The Witness gives you an account of all the transactions, in taking the two Ships, and disposing of the Goods, and dividing of the Mohey. Indeed he fays, when the distribution was made, he was not in the Cabio, but tells you he heard the Lift called over, and all the other Prisoners severally went in, and broughe out their Shares in their Hats, or otherwise, and did not hear any one complain that he had not his Share.

Gentlemen, there are three Perfons that were Servants, that is, R. Lamley, he was Servant to Owens the Cook; Will. Jerkins, he was Servant to the Mate, and R. Barlicorn, who was Servant to Capt. Kid. Now though their might have their Shares delivered them. yet it is to be prelumed that they were to be accountable to their Mafters; And they being Servants, I fuppofe you will think fit to diffinguilh them from the reft.

centlemen, this is the fum of the Evidence given for the King. And indeed this feems to be as firong an Evidence against the Prisoners at the Bar as can be. They did endeavour to take the Meco Fleet, but they were too firong for them; And they could have no fuspition that they were French, for they had English, and Dutch, and Moorish Colours: to that Capt. Kid could have no pretence from his Commission to look after these Ships; There were no French among them, and yet there he lay three Weeks waiting for them. But they did actually take these two ships mentioned in the Indictments, and disposed of the Goods, and shared the product among themselves. Here is all the Evidence that can be given of Piracy.

Now Capt. Kid, when he comes to make his Defence, tells you, he had a Commission, and it was produced ; (and that is no more than what is common in time of War) whereby he is authorifed to take the Ships and Goods of any of the Subjects of the French King. But it is Penned with great caution, he is to take none but the Goods and Ships of the French King, or his Subjects, and he is to keep an exact account of all that he takes, and to procure them to be condemned in the Admiralty. Now if he had purfued this Commission, and gone no further, it had been well, he had done justly, and answered the end on which he was sent out. And it does appear, that the first Vessel that he took in his pass-ge to New $\mathcal{I} \circ k$, was thus condemned. But afterwards I do not find that he had any regard to his Commission; but waited for that great Moco Fleet a confiderable time, I think about three Weeks; and being disappointed there, he afterwards did take thefe two Ships mentioned in the Indictment ; and it does not appear that they were French Ships, neither were there any French Paffes on board them. One of the Witneffes indeed fays he heard of French Paffes, but neither he or any other person that hath been produced has feen one of them. Now I do not observe that his Commillion does any manner of way tend to excuse the Captain in taking both, or either of these Ships. One of them was under an English Commander, which was Parker, the other under a Dutchman; there were no Frenchmen aboard, only Leroy, who was made a kind of a mock-Captain by Kid to ferve a prefent tur. But what Captain Kid has faid from his Commission, is fo far from jultifying him, that it feems rather an aggravation of his Crime. For he that will go out with the King's Commission on a just and laudable defign to take the Ships and Effects of the French King in War, and also to destroy Pirates (which were the principal ends of his being fitted out to Sea) and inflead thereof will turn Pirate himfelf, make use of the force with which, he was entrusted for the promoting his Piratical purpoles, and for the fellonious taking the Ships and Goods of those that were in Amity with the King of England, appears to be a manifest breach and violation of his trust; attended with very aggravating circumstances.

Now for those three that were Servants, I must leave it to you, whether they did act otherwlfe than they might do. A Servant is to obey his Master, but it must be in things lawful and honest's If they did any thing elfe, you who have heard the Evidence will consider of their Guilt, and whether their cases differ from the rest; but there is some probability that their Shares might be accounted for to their respective Masters.

Now as to the reft, there are fome of them that do pretend they did furrender themfelves, one of them to Mr. Riches a Juffice of Peace in Surry, others to Collonel Bafs that was a Commander in Eaft-Jerfy; and it does appear that they did furrender themfelves accordingly. But that does not come under your coulideration, you are to confider only whether they are Guilty of the Facts they fland charged with, or no. As to what effect their Surrendring them elv s may have with his Majetty, mutt be left to the King's Royal Pleafure; but we are to confider the Evidence. Now they generally fay they did obey the Captain, and that they underttood he had the Kings Commiffion; Truly to far as he purfued the Kings Commiffion, they were to obey him; But when he acts contrary to the Kings Commiffion, in acts of Piracy upon the Ships, Goods and Effects of the Kings Friends, and thole in Amity with the Crown of England they fhould have been fo far from obeying and allifting him, that they fhould have obftructed him and feized him that he might have been brought to Juffice, and that would have been a greater windication of their Innocencies. But as the matter now appears, I do not fee that any thing they have faid, tends to their defence, and therefore I must leave it to your confideration; Indeed there are some Witnesses appear for Capt. Kid. Coll. Hemfon gives you this account of Capt. Kid, that he was under his Command in the beginning of the War, and that he Fought and behaved himself very well, and was setviceable in the West Indies ; and he fays he difcourfed him about his going out on the expedition he was fent, and that Kid faid he had no inclination to go. And Mr. Cooper likewife tells you, that about ten or twelve Years ago he knew him, and that he Fought the French, and behaved himself very well at that time; and that several of his Men run away with his Ship when he was at Antego.

Then there is Gabriel Loff, he has produced a Witness for himself, one Davis. And Davis tells you he was a Priloner in New-York by order from my Lord Bellamont; and at first they were some days there before they were taken into Custody; and there was so little apprehension of his being a dangerous Man, that he had some savour allowed him, and had a great deal of liberty. This is that he fays. I find not that any of the reft have produced any Evidence, only they fay they were under the Commander, and were to observe him. But if that would excuse them, then all Pirates would be excused. Now as to Capt. Kid, it seems he has wofully transgreffed the business of his Commission, and acted contrary to the end and defign of his being lent out, in the Piratical taking the Ships and Goods mentioned in the Indictments, in which the other Prisoners at the Bar have joined with him; and they were so far from being the Ships and Goods of the French King, or his Subjects, or Pirates, that they were the Ships and Goods of Perfons of other Nations in Amity with the King of England. Now if you believe these Witnesses, that Capt. Kid has taken these Ships in a Piratical manner, and that the other Perfons affisted him in it, and had their Shares of the Money and Goods, which is an evidence of their confenting to, and spontaneous acting, I believe you will think fit to find them Guilty, but I leave it to you. And as to these three Persons that were Servants, I must leave their cafe to your confideration, whether you will think fit to diffinguish them from the reft; or not.

Then an Officer was Sworn to keep the Jury:

Mr. Knapp, My Lord, and Gentlemen of the Jury, These are two several Indictments of Piracy, against Will. Kid and the fix other Prisoners at the Bar. The first fets forth, That these Prisoners, the 28th of December, in the Eighth Year of his Majesty's Reign, about four Leagues from Calicut, did piratically enter a certain Ship, called a Moorifh Ship; and that they took her, with the Apparel and Tackle, and took out of her several Goods that have been read to you in this Indictment. Mr. Soll. Gen. My Lord, and Gentlemen of the Jury, I am Counfel for the King against the Prifoners at the Bar. I hey ftand indicted for several Piracies committed on two Ships, and our Evidence against them will be to this Purpose : Captain Kid had two Commissions, one was to take Pirates, the other was to take French Ships. Will. Kid, in his Ship the Adventure Gally, went out of England in the Year 1696. He afterwards went to New York, and there he increased the number of his Men. And from thence went away with a Refolution to commit the Piracies, some of which he has been convicted of already. Then he went to Babs-Key, and lay in wait to intercept the Mo-co. Fleet; but was difappointed of that, they being well guarded. He went afterwards to other Places, and took two Ships; which were not the Ships here mentioned. After that he feized a Ship, called a Moorif Ship, ten Leagues from Calicut, and there feizes one of the Ships for which he is now indicted, a Moorifh Ship, and takes out of her Sugar-Candy, and other Goods, to the value of about five and twenty Pounds. In January following he meets another Ship, and feizes her too, and takes out of her to the value of fixty Pounds. These Goods he disposes of, and divides the Proceed of it between himfelf and the Crew of the Ship. And this is the Piracy for which he is now indi-cted. The matter you are to inquire into is, Whether they be guilty of Piracy on these two Ships We will call our Witnesse, and if we prove them guilty I doubt not but you will do right or no. to your Country and them. Mr. Bradinbam, these Gentlemen have not been upon the Jury before, therefore you must give an account of the whole matter from the beginning, from your going out of Plimouth.

R. Bradinbam, In the Year 1696, the beginning of May, we went from Plimouth to New-York.

Mr. Soll. Gen. What Ship did you go in ?

R. Bradinham, The Adventure Gally. And by the way he took a French Ship, which he condemned when he came to New York. At New York he put up his Articles, to get Men aboard his Ship, and they were to have a share of what was taken : About the fixth of September we failed,

Mr. J. Gould, What number of men had you when you went from England?

R. Bradinham, About feventy Men.

Mr. J. Gould, How many had you when you went from New York?

R. Bradinham, About an hundred and fifty. The fixth of September we failed from New York, and went to Maderas, then to Bonavis, then to St. Jauger, then to Madagascar, then to Joanna, then to Mahala, then to Joanna again, then to Meta in the Red Sea, and then to Babs-Key. Mr. Soll. Gen. What did you do there?

R. Bradinham, He lay there about a fortnight or three weeks, to wait for the Moco Fleet, and fent out his Boat three times to make discovery; the two first times they made no discovery, but the third time they brought information, that they were ready to fail.

Mr. B. Hatfel, What was the Moco Fleet?

R. Bradinbam, They were Moorifh Ships. Mr. B. Hatfel, To what end did he wait for them?

R. Bradinbam, He faid he would make a Voyage out of them.

Mr. Soll. Gen. What hapned on that?

R. Bradinham, He ordered some men to look out for them on the Highlands; and when they faw them coming they were to give notice, and he was to fetch them off in the Boat. This Fleet came, and he fell in with them, and fired at them ; but they being under Convoy, he was forced to quit them. And then going to Carrawar, he met with one Parker's Ship; he took this Parker's Ship, and took him for a Pilot, and the Portuguese for a Linguister.

Mr. Soll. Gen. How did he use the men there?

R. Bradinham, Two of them were brought on board the Adventure Galley, and they were hoifted up, and drubb'd with a haked Curlafs.

Mr. Soll Gen. Why did he do that?

R. Bradinham, He put to Sea, and the next day he met with a Portuguese Man of War, and fought her.

Will. Kid He tells nothing but meet Lies.

R: Bradinham, Then he went to the Malabar Illands; and watered and wooded, and caufed his men to burn feveral Houfes, and plunder feveral Boats, and afterwards burnt them.

Mr B. Turton, Did you see them burnt? R Bradinham, I was not alhore, but I faw the Smoke.

Will Kid. It is a fine trade, that you must take away to many of the King's Subjects Lives, and know nothing at all of the matter.

Mr. Soll. Gen. What did you do with that Ship?

R. Bradinham, He took her, and disposed of the Goods, and carried her to Madagascar. Mr. Soll Gen. What did he do after that?

Mr Soll Gen. Go on, Mr. Bradlinham, and give an account of your further Proceedings.

Will Kid. I hope the King's Counfel will not pur him in the way. It is hard that a couple of Rafcals Thould take away the King's Subjects Lives. They ate a couple of Rogues and Rafcals.

R Bradinham, This Ketch was taken by the Ship's Crew, about December, 1697. and one of the Boat's Crew was wounded at the taking of this Ketch. Mr. Soll. Gen. What was there in this Ship?

R. Bradinham, Some Tubs of Sugar-Candy, Tobacco, Gc. Mr. Soll. Gen. What did he do with these Goods?

R. Bradinham, It was divided into 160 shares, and Captain Kid was to have forty shares, les them be as many as they would, and the reft were to be divided among the Men.

Mr. Knapp, What did you meet with afterwards? R. Bradinham, A Portuguese Ship. Some time in January, 1693, we met with a Portuguese Ship on the Coast of Malabar, and he took her; and he took out of her some Opium, some East-India Goods, some Powder, and fixty or seventy Bags of Rice.

Mr. Soll. Gen. My Lord, this is the other Ship for which they are indicted. What was the value of these Goods? R. Bradinham, There were some East-India Goods, Opium, Powder and Rice. Mr. Soll. Gen, What was the value of these Goods? R. Bradinham, About four or five hundred Pounds. Will. Kid, It is a fine trade indeed, that he must be instructed what to fay. R. Bradinham, After this we went a cruiting on that Coast, and we met with the Queda Merchant, and took her : And afterwards, about fifty Leagues from the Cape, we met with a Moorifli Veffel; and Captain Kid fent his Men aboard that Veffel, and they took out of her ten Jarrs of Butter, and a Main-fail; and he took out two of the men (that he carried to Madagascar) because he wanted men. R Bradinham, They were supposed to be Pirates.

Mr. Knapp, Who was the Commander of that Ship?

R. Bradinham, Captain Culliford.

Will. Kid, How came you to know this? He fays any thing.

Mr. Knapp, Go on with this Story, and give an account what passed between them.

R. Bradinbam, This Canooe came aboard Captain Kid, and they told him, they heard he was come to take them, and hang them; but he affured them it was no fuch thing: And he went aboard the Frigate, and fwore to be true to them, and that he would aid them in any thing he had; and Captain Culliford came aboard him, and they made Prefents to one another.

Mr. Soll. Gen. Mr. Kid, ask him what questions you will.

Mr. J. Turton, Captain Kid, will you ask this Witness any questions?

Will. Kid, My Lord, what fignifies it ? Were there not ninety of the men that mutinied? I faid, Let us take this Ship; and did they not all confult, and faid, Where there is one that will fire against the Pirate, there are ten that will fire against you ; and fo they went, and took the Goods, and left me : I ask you whether this be not true?

R. Bradinham, My Lord, he never spoke any thing like it; that he would take Culliford, but he fwore to be true to them.

R Bradinbam, I said but two, and no more.

Clerk of Arr. Captain Kid, have you any thing more to ask him?

Will. Kid, It fignifies nothing to ask him any thing. Clerk of Arr. Robert Lamley, will you ask this Witness any thing? R. Lamley, I only ask him whether I was not an Apprentice?

Mr. J. Turton, Answer that question. R. Bradinham, My Lord, he was a Servant. Mr. J. Turton, To whom? R. Bradinham, To Mr. Owens.

Mr. J. Turton, was his Master aboard then? R. Bradinham, Yes, my Lord.

Mr. F. Turton, He did not confine himself to a day, he faid about the beginning of May. Mr. Soll. Gen. Call Joseph Palmer, (who appeared.) Mr. Palmer, pray give my Lord, and the Jury, an account of Captain Kid and his Crew, where they went, and what they did.

Jos. Palmer, We went from Plimouth to New York, in the year 1696, and in the way took a French Ship, and carried her to New York, and fold her : And there he put up Articles to invite Men aboard his Ship, and what they took was to be divided into fo many shares, whereof Captain Kid was to have forty, the reft to be divided among the Men ; and in September following we went from thence, and we had then about 160 Men : From thence we went to Maderas, from thence to Bonavis, then to St. Jauger, then to Joanna, then to Mahala, then to Joanna again, and then to Meta in the Red Sea, where he watered and wooded his Ship, and then to Babs-Key, a small Island in the Red Sea: And when he came there, he ordered his men to look out on the Highlands for the Moco Fleet, and expected the Fleet to come that way; and he fent fome men in his Boat, with Or-ders either to take a Prifoner, or to bring word what Ships were there : He fent his Boat twice and they made no Difcovery, but the third time they went they came within fight of the Ships, and brought word that there were 14 or 15 fail lying there, with Dutch, and English, and Moorish Colours, and a great Ship with red Colours ready to fail: And then Captain Kid ordered his men to look out on the other lide the Highlands, for fear the Ships should pais him; and at last the Ships came down.

Will. Kid, There is no great occasion for this.

And after this going to Carranvar, he took a Ship called the Mayden; it was between Carrawar and this Place, they reckoned they were not far from the Island of St. John: He took this Ship, and took out of her fome Pepper, a Bail of Coffee, and fome more Bails of Coffee came on board, but he retained only one Bail and the Pep-per, and faid he would not cumber his Ship with fuch ftuff; and Parker and a Portuguese he took out, one for a Pilate, the other for a Linguister : And two of the men he ordered to be hoisted up, and whipt with a naked Cutlass.

Will. Kid, I ask him this one thing, Did the Moco Fleet fire first at me, or I at them?

Will Kid, And just now the other faid I fired first ; Is not he perjured?

Mr. J. Turton, Mr. Bradinham, did he fire first, or no? R. Bradinham, He fired at them. I only faid you fired at them, I did not say first or last.

Mr. 7. Turton, Gentlemen of the Jury, Here are several Persons, viz. William Kid, Robert Lamley, William Jenkins, Gabriel Loff, Hugh Parrot, Richard Barlicorn, and Darby Molins; they all ftand indicted for Piracy : Indeed there are three more indicted with them, viz. Nicholas Churchilf James Howe, and Abel Owens; but they have confessed themselves guilty, and you are now eased o any inquiry concerning them, and are only to confider of the other feven, who are indicted upon two feveral Indictments: One is, for the piratical and felonious taking away a Moorish Ketch, to the value of fifty Pounds, and the Goods therein to the value of one hundred Pounds; this was in December, 1697. And the other is, for piratically feizing and taking away Goods to the value of feventy Pounds from the Portugal Ship, twelve Leagues from Calicut in the East Indies. Now to these two Indictments these Prisoners at the Bar have pleaded, Not Guilty; and whether they are so or no, you are to determine, upon the Evidence given you. There have been two Witness produced for the King, Robert Bradinham and Joseph Palmer; I will not trouble you with the repetition of their distinct Evidence, because they agree in all things, and if I mention what one has faid, it is in effect what the other faid alfo.

Gentlemen, It appears that Captain Kid, with feventy Perfons aboard his Ship called the Adventure Galley, went from England in the year 1696, having a Commission of Mart and Reprisal, to take the Veffels, Ships and Goods of the French King, or any of his Subjects, he being then at War with the King of England; and another Commission for feizing Pirates. He has not indeed produced these Commissions to you now, tho' he did on another Tryal. But he went out on a very honest design, and in purfuance of it he took a French Ship in his Paffage to New York, and brought her thither, and had her legally condemned. But while he was there, it appears that he had other thoughts poffes'd him, and wicked intentions to turn Pirate, and not to take them ; and that he might be well mann'd he makes Proclamation amongst the Mariners there, that such of them as would come aboard his Ship, and affift him in his Enterprifes, fhould have their fhares of what Prizes or Booties could be taken; and he propos'd that he would have forty fhares himfelf, and the reft fhould be equally distributed amongst the Mariners according to agreement, the whole being divided into 160 shares as I remember ; by this means his number was increased from 70 to 150. They fet fail from New York, and (after many other Places mentioned by the Witneffes) they came to a place called Babs-Key, which it feems is in the Red Sea; and there they stayed a confiderable time, I think about three weeks, and this was in expectation to meet with the Moca Fleet, which he intended to make a Prize; and during his flay at Babs-Key he fent his Boat three feveral times to get intelligence of this Fleet; the two first times there was no account of any thing, but the third time there was notice brought that they were ready to fail, and that they had English, Dutch, and Moorish Colours. And when he had this intelligence, to prevent their escaping him he fends Men ashore, to go on the Highlands to observe when they did actually fail; and when he had notice that they were under fail, he likewife failed, and went through the Fleet, and made fome shots at some of the Ships ; but it appearing that they had a Convoy, and that they were too ftrong for him, he quitted the Prize there, of which he had fo great expectation. But afterwards he went on, and took his course towards Carrawar, and there he takes a Moorish Ship; and Parker an Englishman the Commander of her, and a Portuguese also were taken out of her. From thence they went to Malabar, and there he fent some Men ashore, and there they burnt some Houses; and after that took a Moorish Ship for which they have been tried. Afterwards, in December 1697, (now I come to the first Indictment) upon that very Coast, some Leagues from Calicut, they took a Moorifh Ketch, and this Ketch and the Goods aboard it, which were some quantities of Sugar Candy, Sugar, and Tobacco: It seems these Goods were shared between them aboard the Ship; the Witness is not confident what fhare the Captain then had, but what the Captain had not, was divided amongst them. The Witnesses fay they burnt this Ketch, because she was not useful to them, and the Men that were on board were put ashore. Now this is the matter of the first Indistment, the piratically seizing and plundering, this Ketch, and taking the Goods out of her, and dividing them amongst the Prisoners; both the Witnesses prove there was a distribution of them.

Then they come to the next Month, and that is January; and this is the matter of the fecond Indictment, for piratically taking feveral Goods, to the value of feventy Pounds, from the Mariners of the Ship called the Portugal Ship: And these Witnesses prove the taking of this Ship on the Coast of Calicut; and there were aboard this Ship feveral forts of Goods, Opium, Rice, Bees-wax, Butter, and other forts of Goods, which they judge might be worth four or five hundred Pounds. Now after this, there were some Dutch Ships that gave chace to the Captain, and he was forced to leave the Ship; but he took fome of the Goods into his own Ship, and the reft were fold, and the Money divided among the Men: The Captain called them one by one into his Cabbin, and fo they had their feveral shares according to the Proposals at New York. It is not possible for them to say they faw every man's share paid, but they fay that they were all call'd by name to receive their fhares, and they went into the Cabbin for that purpose, and they believe they had all their shares according to Agreement, because none complained that they had it not.

Gentlemen, There is but one thing more that I will mention to you. When they came to Madagascar, there was one Culliford who was a Pirate; and he fent some of his Grew aboard, to know whether Captain Kid was not come with a defign to feize them, and hang them; and he declared he had no fuch Dolign: And he and Culliford were extremely kind to one another, and made Vifits and Presents to each other : And Captain Kid gave two Guns to Culliford, as one of the Witnesses fays; but the other Witness fays there were four Guns that he gave to Culliford, who was engaged in the fame defign of Firacy, and Culliford prefented other things to Kid. But

But now, Gentlemen, the business you are to inquire into is, the piratical taking of these Ships: And the Wirneffes have politively and directly proved not only the taking the Ships but the feizing the Goods, and felling them, and fharing the Money. And if thefe Witneffes fay true, as nothing appears to the contra-ry, by the Prifoners crois-examining them, or otherwife; they are not at all contradicted, or their credi-bility made queffionable : And they are fuch as are most likely to know what was done, being with them in the Witneffes have and account with them in thefe. For example, and if you are an intervention and the second with them bility made queftionable : And they are fuch as are most likely to know what was done, being with them in the whole Voyage, and engaged with them in these Enterprises. And if you can give entire credit to the Witnesses, you will probably find these Persons guilty of the Piracy they are charged with; which I leave to your Confideration. Now indeed there are three of them that are Servants, and perhaps you may think their Case is different from the reft; Robert Lamley, who was a Servant to Owens the Cook; William Jenkins, who was Servant to the Mare; and R. Barlidorn, who was Servant to Captain Kid. And the Witnesses do prove that they had their feveral states of the Goods and Money; yet, notwithstanding that, they being Servants, their Mastersmight be entitled to their shares. So that if you believe they were Servants, and comman-ded to serve and affift their Masters in what they did. Limit leave it to you whether you will think fit to their Mattersimight beenticed to their mates. So that if you believe they were servants, and comman-ded to ferve and affift their Mafters in what they did, I mult leave it to you whether you will think fit to diffinguish their Cale from the reft. I do not find that the others fay any thing material in their own defence, they have called no Witneffes at all. The Captain lays the blame on the Men, and the Men feem to lay the blame on him. He went out on a good defign, to take Pirates, had he purfued it; but instead of that, it appears that he turned Pirate himfelf, and took the Ships and Goods of Friends instead of Enemies, which was a notorious Breach of Truft, as well as a manifest Violation of Law. The Evidence feems which was a notorious Breach of Truft, as well as a manifest Violation of Law. The Evidence seems strong against them, which I leave you to confider of.
